Dear George

I must trouble you to hand the enclosed to Aunt Smith if he should still be at Dr. Haven; or if he has left that place, please to forward it to him.
Letters from your Aunt Olivia have arrived from Randolph dated 20th Inst. all were then well. She expresses much affection for you and anxiety for your health & happiness, but apologizes for not having yet written you in answer to Sunday letter. She has rec^d from you, begs that you would excuse her, and hopes that she will write you before long.

How is your Hon^{ble} Father and other at Hartford? — Yours in great haste and much affection
