Annual Banquet Debaters' Society

Representative high school spell-binders and exponents of logic for the past eight years assembled Friday night at Turner's restaurant to banquet and attend the annual meeting of the Mt. Vernon high school Debaters' society, which reunions are becoming more and more popular as was attested by the presence of some forty people at Friday night's affair.

The banquet tables were decorated with the orange and black of Mt. Vernon high school which was so arranged as to form pretty squares of rather large proportions. Potted flowers around which orange and black was wound, also rested on the table at intervals.

The following excellent menu, prepared by Frank Turner, proprietor of the restaurant, was served:

Grape Fruit
Olives	Nuts
Roast Chicken
Oyster Patties	Mashed Potatoes
Sage Dressing
Fruit Salad
Neapolitan Ice Cream
Coffee

ALTHOUSE

A Stimulus To Sing Rise Sensation

The recent sensational Althouse, tenor, will also be an incentive to young Artists. Five years ago he was soloist in the local Reading Coal I. His ambition was to sing in through Oscar Hammers given the opportunity. I had a most marvelous one so young.

He has been soloist with the New York Symphony orchestra under Damrosch's direction engaged with the Metropolitan Co. of New York city, which places him among the elite. He has been constantly engaged in concert work along with the engagements. He has been by a talking machine and his records are very popular.

At a recent engagement in N. Y., he was immediately engaged for next year. The Utica says "Mr. Althouse sang with the warmth of feeling and
