HISTORY

The Divinity School of Kenyon College owes its existence to the designs and achievements of the first Bishop of Ohio, the Rt. Rev. Philander Chase. The needs of the Diocese, of which he became bishop in 1819, suggested to him the importance of an institution for the education of young men for the Ministry of the Church. With the object of securing funds for this purpose he visited England in 1823. Such was his success there and such his zeal and courage that on his return he determined to add to his earlier plan a college for secular education. This, as he declared, was not to hinder but to further the original design. The first corporate name was "The Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio." In 1891 the corporate title became "Kenyon College," and the Seminary has since been known as the Divinity School of Kenyon College.

It is the oldest of the theological seminaries of the Episcopal Church west of the Allegheny Mountains. The roll of Alumni includes more than two hundred and fifty names, the first being recorded in the year 1828.

The design includes a high standard, and its vigorous enforcement. Thoroughness in theological education is a present demand which cannot with safety be neglected. Loyalty to the Church, for the service of which this institution was founded, requires insistence upon this point.

The instruction is Churchly and conservative, but does not shrink from discussion of those critical questions of the day, ignorance of which, on the part of the minister of the Church, is a disqualification as serious as it is inexcusable.

Site

Gambier, the seat of Kenyon College, is a village of about seven hundred inhabitants, on the Akron Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a little east of the center of the State of Ohio, fifty miles from Columbus, five miles from Mount Vernon, and one hundred and twenty miles from Cleveland. The altitude above sea level is more than a thousand feet. The site was chosen by Bishop Chase, after careful investigation, for natural beauty of surroundings and healthfulness of climate. The plateau on which the College and village are situated rises about one hundred and fifty feet above the valley of the Kokosing River, which flows around it on three sides.

Buildings

Bexley Hall, (1839) the home of the Divinity School, which is a three story building of pure Elizabethan architecture, stands in its own park of several acres. In the summer of 1913 a complete reconstruction of the interior was undertaken and the renovated building was reoccupied in January, 1915. The cost has been about $80,000 and the renovated building is stronger, better and more beautiful than the original structure. While only the walls and roof timbers have been retained, the beautiful exterior designed by Henry Roberts, the architect of the London Crystal palace, is quite unchanged. Bexley Hall is therefore a new building with a new interior arrangement. The first floor now contains a fine chapel with a visitors' gallery, a common room or parlor, and four recitation rooms. The second and third floors contain single rooms and suites for two students, with baths on each floor. The oriel window over the entrance, formerly of wood, has been replaced in stone, while retaining every line of its graceful proportions and beautiful traceries.

The Seminary Chapel is placed under the dedication of St. Mary, following the precedent of the Chapel at Bexley, England. The tile floor, cathedral windows and trussed and panelled ceiling are handsome features. The beautiful altar window and a two-manual organ with pedal rank have been given by Miss Florence Sullivan of New York.

Colburn Hall, the library of the theological seminary is built in the same style as Bexley Hall, with which it is connected by a handsome Tudor arch. It is the gift of the late Mrs. L. C. Colburn, as a memorial of her husband, Warren Colburn.

Library

The library of about 12,000 volumes, housed in Colburn Hall is fairly well supplied with books of reference and the standard authorities in the various departments of theological study. It also contains many rare and curious volumes, some of which have no duplicates on this side of the Atlantic. The nucleus of the library consists of gifts to Bishops Chase and McIlvaine from members of the Oxford and Cambridge colleges. Bishop Bedell's private library of about 2500 volumes has been added, and further additions are made from the funds given by Charles D. Betts and Mrs. Bedell.

Through the generosity of the Rev. D. B. Ray, '55, the valuable collection of books formerly owned by the Rev. John F. Ohl, '61, has also been added to the library. These books have been placed in especially constructed cases in Colburn Hall.

THE BEDELL LECTURESHIP

A fund of five thousand dollars established by Bishop and Mrs. Bedell provides for biennial lectures on the Evidences of Natural and Revealed Religion, or the Relation of Science to Religion. These lectures are given every other year on Founder's Day, which is celebrated on the Festival of all Saints. The foundation provides also for the publication of the lectures.

The following lectures have been delivered:

THE OLD TESTAMENT IN ENGLISH

For students dispensed from Hebrew there are two courses in Exegesis based on the Revised Version. One course takes up the poetical books of Job, Psalms, Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, the other the most important portions of the Prophetical Books, especially Isaiah, Amos, Hosea, Micah and Jeremiah. These courses are given in alternate years for members of the Middle and Senior classes.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

JUNIOR YEAR—

The work in the Junior Year begins with a short course in Palestine and its people in the time of Christ. One of the Synoptic Gospels is then taken up and read minutely in class, special attention being given to the Greek language and to the development of an exegetical method and habit. In the latter part of the year a course is given in the Teaching of Jesus.

Parallel with this is a study of the Books of the New Testament in their historical setting, the events which they narrate, and the circumstances out of which they appeared. Recitations and lectures four hours a week.

MIDDLE YEAR—

The work of this year commences with a review of the beginnings of the Christian Church as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. This leads to the life and work of St. Paul, which are then taken up, on the basis of the Acts and of the Epistles which fall within the "Missionary Journeys," the chief aim being to bring forth the salient points of his doctrine and the conditions to which they applied.

In this year the Introduction of the New Testament is studied, covering the contents of the Books and the more important problems of authorship and historicity. Three hours a week.

SENIOR YEAR—

The work of the Middle Year is continued in this and the Epistles of the Captivity are carefully studied. The Epistle to the Hebrews is also read, and compared with the Pauline writings.

The especial work of this year is exegesis. The endeavor is to familiarize the student with the use of commentaries, and to lead him to acquire facility in arriving at the meaning of passages in their context. Four hours a week.

In the course of the three years as much of the New Testament is read in Greek as possible, and the whole of it in English.

LITURGICS

JUNIOR YEAR—

The Study of Liturgics is begun in the Junior Year, with a course upon the use of the Prayer Book. The text book employed as a basis is Bishop Paret's "Pastoral Use of the Prayer Book," supplemented from other sources, the object being to familiarize the student with the rubrics of the book and to guide him in practical interpretation of them as well as to study the rationale and meaning of the services. One hour a week.

SENIOR YEAR—

During this year the history of the Prayer Book is pursued, together with a special study of the principles of public worship, and of the Communion Office and early Liturgies. The text book used is Proctor and Frere's "History of the Book of Common Prayer." One hour a week.

HOMILETICS

PROFESSOR DAVIES

The text books are Garvie's "The Christian Preacher" and Broadus' "The Preparation and Delivery of Sermons."

The sermons of great preachers are analyzed and carefully studied. The students are later required to make outlines of the different types of sermons which are read in class and criticized by the students and instructor. Written sermons based on these outlines are then prepared and delivered before the class. In the senior year training is given in preaching without manuscript or notes.

Once a week during the entire seminary course there is an exercise in extemporaneous speaking. Popular subjects are selected and the students discuss them either in debates or unwritten addresses. At these exercises Professor Lockert of the College Faculty has given the students the benefit of his criticism.

During the past year a number of successful preachers have addressed the students of the Seminary on their method of sermon construction. The list of such speakers includes Bishops Leonard, Vincent, Reese and DuMoulin. Dean White, Archdeacon Patterson, the Rev. Drs. Chauncey and Nelson, the Rev. R. E. Schulz and the Rev. William Pringle.

Provision is also made for instruction in voice culture and effective public reading of the Church service.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This course runs through the middle year. In the first semester the work deals with educational principles in general and with "child study." In the second semester it deals mainly with practical matters of Sunday School organization, grading, management, lessons, social activities, benevolences, etc.

Lectures are given throughout the course. The library contains a number of the best books on education in general and on religious education; to these reference is constantly made.

There is also a collection of lesson books and lesson papers of various series, and these are examined by the student to note their excellencies and faults. Three hours a week.

HISTORY OF MISSIONS

After a rapid review of missionary history from the time of the Apostles to the present day, the foreign and domestic mission fields of our own Church are studied with the aid of the reports published by the Board of Missions. For Seniors, one hour a week, one-half year.

Aid will be given to properly qualified students by scholarships, or by the Joint Education Committee of the Dioceses of Ohio and Southern Ohio.

The establishment of a Commons Hall by the Board of Trustees during the summer of 1912, for all students connected with Kenyon College, makes possible the furnishing of good board at a minimum cost. All students of the Theological Department are expected to board at the Commons Hall, while holders of scholarships or appropriations from the Education Committee are required to do so, all such beneficiary aid being applied first to the payment of bills for board, light, heat and laundry. The estimate cost is as follows:

Board, about $250.00.

Heat and light, from $40.00 to $80.00.

Laundry, about $15.00.

SCHOLARSHIP AND BENEFICIARY AID

The income from the following endowed scholarships is available for the use of theological students:

THE HANNAH MORE SCHOLARSHIP of 200 pounds, founded in 1835 by bequest of Hannah More.

THE CLARK SCHOLARSHIP $1,071, founded in 1835 by Mrs. Lucy Clark.
