Thomas Of This City Against Colored Lodge Of Knights Of Pythias To Recover Money On Insurance Policy Suit Filed Against The Keller Estate Other Items From The Temple Of Justice Henry E. Thomas has commenced a suit in the court of common pleas against Thompson Cooper lodge, No. 7, order of the Knights of Pythias (colored). The plaintiff claims that his son, the late Henry J. Thomas, carried a life insurance policy in the lodge for $300 and that the beneficiary named in the policy was Jessie May Thomas, the wife of the deceased. The plaintiff states that for a certain consideration the said Jessie May Thomas assigned the policy to the plaintiff in this action. The plaintiff states that defendant has failed to pay the $300 to him and therefore brings an action compelling the lodge to pay to him this amount, with interest from December 7, 1909. The attorneys for the plaintiff in this action are H. H. and R. M. Greer. Sues Keller Estate— John H. D. Porter, charging Stinson with malicious destruction of property. It is alleged that Stinson was intoxicated and evidently had more money than he cared for, as when he was opposite the Porter grocery on South Main street, he took a silver dollar from his pocket and threw it through the window. Immediately deciding that he wanted the dollar, he proceeded to kick the door down and start to look for the money. The act was witnessed by Chief Dermody who immediately placed him under arrest. He was locked in jail until Monday morning when he was brought before Mayor Mitchell and entered a plea of guilty to the charge. He stated that he secured his whisky from Mansfield and that no one assisted him in disposing of a gallon of the liquor. He was fined ten dollars and costs and released.	ITALY Projects Ships With 13 Heavy Guns London, April 18 — Battleships armed with 13 big guns are the latest proposed addition to the navies of the world, and Italy is the nation that will provide them, a naval expert in London asserts. As is well known, he says, a program of four battleships for Italy has been in the air for some time, so long indeed that there were more than a few who began to discredit the reported intention of the Italian government and to call the proposed ships phantom battleships. As matter of fact one of the ships, the Dante Alighieri, was laid down last June at Castellamare. She will be of 19,000 tons and will be armed with 10 12-inch guns, arranged in a novel manner. At each end of the ship, on the center line, will be a turret containing three guns, and immediately behind these and firing over them will be a turret of the ordinary pattern, containing two guns. The three other ships will be of 22,000 tons and their armament will consist of 12 22-inch guns. The new ships will be named Conte di Cavour, Leonardo da Vinci and Guilio Cesare, and their total cost is estimated at $12,250,000 each, or over $36,750,000 more than the British Vanguard. The main armament will be arranged in a manner even more novel than that of the Dante. The arrangement forward will be the same, a triple turret with a twin turret superposed and firing over it. A stern, too, the same arrangement will stand, but instead of being on a lower level as in the case of the Dante the stern guns will have as great a command of fire as those forward. The three other 12-inch guns remaining to complete the main battery will be mounted in a single turret placed between the two funnels and on the same level as the fore and aft turrets. All the turrets will be on the center line of the ship. It may be mentioned that Germany is reported to be using the three-gun turret in the battleships Helgoland, Ostfriesland and Thüringen, now being built, but the system was rejected by the superior council of the French navy.	ACCEPTS Calls To Washington Does Rev. J. J. Dimon (Mansfield News) The Rev. J. J. Dimon has tendered his resignation as rector of Grace Episcopal church of this city, effective May 15 and has accepted the call to the rectorate of St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Washington, D. C., upon the duties of which he will enter May 22. It will be with deep regret that the parishioners and many Mansfield friends of the Rev. Mr. Dimon will learn of his contemplated departure from this city as his rectorate here has been marked by a constantly increasing popularity and Rev. Dimon has shown a faculty for making warm friends, not alone in his own church but among residents of the city in general. The call to St. Andrew's in Washington is a high compliment to his ability as a minister as this church is among the largest and most influential of the nation's capital.	FAINTED While Attending Services At Church ANNIVERSARY OF GREAT DISASTER
