Dear George

I have but a moment to acknowledge the receipt of your excellent letter of 30 Jan^y and to premise for the sake of your own epistolary ease & familiarity, that I will make no further introductions thro' the medium of your correspondence with me, without first obtaining your consent. I cannot close this short note without acknowledging the exquisite delight ~~that~~ the perusal of your letter afforded me. Those pure and delicious emotions that constitute the riches of the heart, and the purest specimens of subliminary bliss, are never produced without intermingling something of sorrow, that chastens the boldness of joy, and ~~transfuses~~ the softest pleasure thro' the soul. The various subjects of which you wrote & the manner of your treating them produced the effect so faintly delineated above. I shall soon have the happiness to see you hereabouts from to day the African closes.

I greet you cordially

Dudley Chase

W George Chese

I don't mean this of a letter now
