Point On Thursday, August 28

(Communication)

many business men in Mt. Vernon and surrounding towns have expressed their disappointment at not being able to attend the outing held at Cedar Point by the Cooper-Bridge Club on account of the fact that the day was held on Saturday, this being a busy day of the week for the business men.

Also a similar disappointment has been expressed by many of our citizens owing to the fact that the day was just at a time when they were compelled to be loyal to their country rather than participate in a pleasure.

It has been suggested that, arrangements be made with the B. & O. R. R. to furnish equipment to take the excursion to Cedar Point on August 28th.

This seems an ideal time as this day most of the merchants of Mt. Vernon close their stores in the afternoon and could, no doubt, be open all day without doing any harm. Also, the rush work of the business men will be over at that time. In the most important point to be considered, do the people of Knox Co. have a county picnic at Cedar Point on August 28th, and are there enough interested to make
