Dear Phi?

R. Ch. 260704

I am better than when I left home:
and am on my way to Cin!

The Trustees of the College in Cin! have by an unanimous vote elected me to the Presidency: but my acceptance of the app^t is a matter of extreme uncertainty: You will know the matter terminates in a few days.

Oliver Bruce is the man of this. He is your second cousin: & I hope a worthy man. He is going directly to Keene N.H.
Pray write to Salmon's Mother & give her some hint of Salmon's prospects, with you the coming winter. She may hear the school is broken up & W. and feel uneasy for her son.

I have but one moment to tell you that I officiated at Springfield night before last - and last night in this place, & expect to be in Cin! Friday night. shall return by this place & Piquette next week
Your loving Father P. C.
