OPENED THE CORTES FOR THE LAST TIME.

Queen Christina's Regency Expires.

Relations Between Spain and Other Countries are Amicable --Some Foreign Dispatches.

Madrid, June 12.—The queen regent, accompanied by the king, opened the cortes. The speech from the throne alluded to this being the last time she will open parliament, as the regency terminates next year. Foreign relations were pronounced to be excellent. The government should specially devote itself to cultivating good relations with Spanish-American countries. Steps had been taken toward concluding commercial treaties with Argentina and other South American states.

It was proposed to amend the concordat in the interests of economy, suppressing some of the dioceses. A bill dealing with the religious orders and declaring which were legal and which would not be tolerated will be introduced. Army and navy re-organization bills will be introduced. A bill will be introduced for the complete conversion of the Cuban and Philippine bonds into perpetual 4 per cents.

Russia's Indemnity Views.
St. Petersburg, June 12.—The impression prevails in official circles here that the mode of paying the Chinese indemnity will not be settled for a long period, possibly not until the present ministers at Peking are replaced. It is thought they all would welcome a change of post and that new men would be readier to settle the differences. While Russia is not pressing the guaranteed loan proposition because the constitutional powers could not guarantee the loan with out legislative consent, yet the plan is not withdrawn. The British proposition is not acceptable. Mr. Rockhill's arbitration proposal causes some wonder, since the mode of payment is hardly considered a suitable issue for a legal determination.

Kaiser's Purpose Not Known.
London, June 12.—Lord Cranborne, the under foreign secretary, replying to a question in the house of commons as to whether Germany meant to maintain a large military force at Shanghai, said the government understood Germany intended to continue keeping a garrison there. No explanation had been given by Germany as to why she had concluded to follow this policy.

May Reduce Sugar Bounties.
Paris, June 12.—It is hinted that in consequence of the revenue shortage the government is considering a proposal to reduce the sugar bounties.

Had Faith in Dowie.
Janesville, Wis., June 12.—Mrs. H. C. Pendleton, living with her husband near Allen's Grove, Wis., died at her home, in childbirth, unattended by any one but a Dowie deacon and elder. An autopsy was held by physicians, who said the woman could have been saved had a physician been called. The coroner's jury found that the woman came to her death from gross neglect and willful negligence on the part of her husband, H. C. Pendleton, Elder John H. Sayres and Deacon Mary C. Spiker, and recommended that they be held. Justice Ames refuses to issue warrants on the ground that the offense is not covered by the statutes.

Approved by Hanna.
Cleveland, June 12.—With reference to President McKinley's refusal to be considered a candidate for a third term Senator Hanna said: "It is just what I expected the president would say, if he said anything at all on the subject." Asked if he was in favor of maintaining the precedent established by President Washington in reference to the number of years the chief executive should hold office, Mr. Hanna said: "I don't think the precedent set by Washington has a great deal to do with the matter. But there is undoubtedly a strong sentiment among the people against such a proposition."

Charge Against J. W. Carnahan.
Washington, June 12.—J. Worth Carnahan, president of the Army and Navy Historical Association of this city, was arrested under an indictment found by the federal grand jury at Columbus, O., charging him with having conspired with R. L. Winslow and J. O. Davis, agents of the association, to defraud residents of the state of Ohio by impersonating special examiners of the pension bureau. Mr. Carnahan admitted his identity as the person indicted and waived a preliminary hearing. United States Commissioner Mills fixing his bond at $1,000.

Inoculated With Hydrophobia.
Chicago, June 12.—Mrs. J. W. Nash was taken to the Pasteur Institute suffering from hydrophobia. Her husband died Friday from the effects of a mad dog's bite. In caring for him Mrs. Nash contracted the disease, a wound in her finger becoming infected while wiping the froth from the dying man's mouth.

Came Home to Die.
Colorado Springs, June 12.—Percy McElrath, formerly United States consul at Turin, Italy, arrived in Colorado Springs in the last stages of consumption, and died two hours later. Mr. McElrath was accompanied by his wife. Only a few weeks ago he was compelled to return from Italy on account of failing health.

THE NAVAL HERO TO ATTEND TEMPLAR CONCLAVE.

Louisville, June 12.—Captain John Leathers, who will be the grand marshal of parade of the twenty-eighth triennial convocation of the Knights Templar in Louisville the fourth week of August, received a letter from Rear Admiral W. S. Schley in which he said definitely that he will attend the convocation. Admiral Schley was tendered the position of grand marshal of the Knight Templar parade nearly a year ago, but declined. He is a member of Columbia commandery of Washington city, which probably will act as his special escort.

This commandery will, it is said, be accompanied to the convocation by the Marine band, by consent of the president and secretary of the navy.

Monument to Lincoln's Mother.
Indianapolis, June 12.—Preliminary steps to the dedication of the monument to Nancy Hanks Lincoln near Lincoln City, Spencer county, were taken at a meeting of the Nancy Hanks Lincoln Memorial association with Governor Durbin. A request had come from Spencer county residents that the monument, which is in position over the grave, be dedicated July 4. This association does not approve of the suggestion, a date in October being favored. It is the intention of Governor Durbin to be present at the exercises, and Governor Yates of Illinois is to be invited. An invitation will also be extended to the Grand Army and probably to the citizens of the state.

Hay in Hanna's Town.
Cleveland, June 12.—Secretary of State Hay arrived here from Washington, and after a brief visit with relatives in this city will go to Buffalo to spend a few days. He expects to return to Washington Monday. Mrs. Hay, who reached the city several days ago, will go to the Hay summer home in New Hampshire.

INSTANT DEATH BEFELL A YOUNG LADY.

Received Heavy Shock of Electricity From an Incandescent Lamp Wire.

Marietta, O., June 12.—Miss Lucy Hanna, bookkeeper of the Marietta Daily Register, was instantly killed by a shock from a live wire on an incandescent lamp. Heavy electrical storms put the transformer out of order. Miss Hanna stepped on an iron door sill with the heavily charged wire in her hand and was killed instantly. Miss Hanna was well known in educational circles and was formerly a teacher in the Marietta commercial college.

Alabama's New Constitution.

Sandusky, O., June 12.—John J. Reiber, 61, of Bucyrus, O., was found dead in a pond in the Soldiers' Home grounds. The presumption is that he fell into the water and drowned. During the civil war Reiber served in the Eighth Ohio Volunteer infantry.

They were charged with attempting to rob the postoffice at Emma and wounding Samuel Alexander, the assistant postmaster.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed by George K. Baker & Son, Only 50c.

Stuebenville, O., June 12.—Edward McDonald, 23, a brickyard employe, was held for trial on a charge that will send him to the penitentiary for life if proved. He is accused of assaulting Rosa Quigg, 11, also of having outraged an older sister and attempting to outrage a 9-year-old sister. He was drunk at the time.

Valet Jones Dying.
New York, June 12.—For some time past reports have been in circulation to the effect that Charles F. Jones, who was valet-secretary to William Marsh Rice, the late Texas millionaire, was in a dangerous condition of health. Mrs. Dickinson, who is in charge of the private sanitarium where Jones is confined, says Jones is dying, that he takes no solid nourishment, is haggard and thin, and his features are drawn and pinched. He has not left his room for four weeks. At the district attorney's office it was denied that Jones is in a dying condition, although it was admitted he is very ill.

SURGEON CONFESSES. IMPLICATES OTHER OFFICERS.

Manilla, June 12.—In the trials of officers of the Forty-third regiment on charges of bribery and permitting trade with the closed ports of the southern part of the island of Leyte, Surgeon Dudley Welch confessed and made damaging statements against Captain Michael Sheilman and Lieutenant Delbert R. Jones. Welch refunded 1,000 pesos, his share of the spoils. The president of Maasin (Leyte) has been arrested, charged with being implicated in the transactions. Agents of Manilla firms also appear to have been connected with the acts on which the charges against the prisoners are based.

None Mourn For the Actress.
Chicago, June 12.—It is said the actress known as Rose Violette, who was killed at the Great Northern hotel by her husband, was Rose Le Febvre, who came to America about six years ago with a German opera company. No one has appeared to take charge of her remains and it is possible she may find a grave in the petter's field. The inquest on the body of Louis Hartman, who killed himself after shooting the woman, is being held. His father will come from New York.

Office Died With Warlie.
Springfield, Ill., June 12.—The office of assistant general passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railroad company was abolished with the death of the incumbent, George E. Kennedy Murder Trial.
Kansas City, June 12.—The defense in the case of Lulu Prince-Kennedy, who is on trial for killing her husband, will not be finished before Thursday noon. The bulk of the testimony for the defense was brought out so far as an attempt to prove an alibi for Bert and C. W. Prince, the brother and father of the prisoner, whom the state had tried to prove were watching the entrances to the Ridge building at the time of the murder to prevent Kennedy's escape. Will Prince was taken from his cell to testify and his entrance into the courtroom caused a buzz among the spectators, who craned their necks to get Hamilton, O., June 12.—Officials and lawyers for the Niles Tool works company went to Dayton to apply to Judge Kurler for an injunction to restrain the striking machinists from picketing their plant and interfering with and intimidating men who wish to return to work. Judge Kurler recently granted such an injunction in the case of the striking metal polishers at Dayton. The Niles people say that 300 of their men will resume work if the picketing is broken up.

Jessie Morrison's Second Trial.
Eldorado, Kan., June 12.—The case of the State vs. Jessie Morrison, charged with having killed Mrs. Clara Wiley Castle, wife of her former sweetheart, by cutting her throat, last June, was called for trial. Attorneys for the defense moved that the case be continued until November. Judge Alkman, the new judge, promptly overruled the motion. a glimpse of the man whom the state is trying to prove the chief actor in the alleged conspiracy to kill Kennedy. The prisoner brightened perceptibly at the entrance of her brother, whose testimony she followed closely. Olivia, Minn., June 12.—Hans Gronnerud, who was supposed to be worth $250,000, has failed, with reported liabilities amounting to $125,000 and seemingly no assets. For many years he was the owner of the bank at Beaver Falls and a heavy stockholder in the Morton and State bank of Olivia and was engaged in loaning trust funds for Wisconsin and eastern parties, as well as many other people. The bank of Beaver Falls has closed its doors and depositors are clamoring for their money. The depositors include farmers, widows, hired girls and laborers. DEATH FOR THE ENTOMBED MINERS.

The Awful Result of Mine Catastrophe.

Sixteen Men Perished, Twelve of Whom Were on a Tour of Rescue.

Port Royal, Pa., June 12.—As a result of the explosion in the Port Royal mines of the Pittsburg Coal company, 16 are dead, seven injured and thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed.

The official list of dead and injured made public by the coal company's officials follows:

The dead recovered: William McCune, superintendent of the company's mines along the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, found lying in the passageway about 1,000 feet from the shaft, leaves wife, three sons and a daughter; Taylor Gunsaulus, Sr., loader, leaves a wife and several children; Fritz Kruger.

Those still entombed in the mine and known for a certainty to be dead: William F. Allison, superintendent of mines, leaves wife and five children; Dennis Wardley, foreman No. 1 mine, wife and four children; John Keck, foreman Darr's mine, wife and several children; Michael Roy, foreman Euclid mines, wife and small boy; Bernard Ball wife and two children; Taylor Gunsaulus, Jr., son of the man taken from mine, leaves a wife; Jerry Daly, wife and children; John Peoples, leaves a wife; David James, leaves a wife; James Canto, machine boss; Samuel Hadley, assistant foreman mine No. 2, wife and two children; Peter Marchando, boss driver mine No. 1, wife and child; John Stickle, pipeman mine No. 3, wife and three children.

Injured: Harry Beveridge; Robert McKenny, pit boss; Charles McCaffery, superintendent Soaper mine; Clarence Setler, J. Smith, Daniel McCullough, Thomas Gleason, all badly burned and bruised.

Twelve of the dead were men who went into the mine as rescuers. What caused the explosion and loss of life is something the mine inspectors are yet unable to find out. Officials of the coal company declare that none but regulation mine lamps were used, while others are of the opinion that one of the men carelessly ignited the gas. The explosion was terrific, and for fully three hours after it happened no one entered the shaft.

Mine Inspector Bernard Callahan, accompanied by seven men, descended the shaft and started upon an investigation tour of the mine. About an hour afterward a terrific report was heard. It was another explosion and great fears were entertained for their safety. The escape of the party was a miracle.

Murdered by Mexicans.
City of Mexico, June 12.—Robert Remmett, 51, an Englishman, and manager of the Coronos Distas Mine company, was shot by robbers at his mine. There was a desperate encounter with the watchman and a servant and both were hacked to death with machetes. The robbers then encountered Remmett and shot him through the heart. Then entering the house they ill treated his wife and obliged her to disclose where her jewelry and money were kept. Mr. Remmett came here from London 12 years ago as manager of the Mexican company of London. His tragic death arouses much sympathy. He and his wife were about leaving Mexico for England on a pleasure trip, and it is supposed the robbers calculated they would have a large sum at hand.

Kansas City, June 12.—Not since the Democratic national convention have so many visitors from all parts of the United States been in Kansas City as are gathered here to attend the twenty-seventh national meeting of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and gorgeously appareled Arabs crowd the streets. M'KINLEY WILL NOT ACCEPT A THIRD TERM.

Washington, June 12.—During the cabinet meeting President McKinley issued the following signed statement, approved by the cabinet, relative to the current talk of making him a candidate for a third term:

"I regret that the suggestion of a third term has been made. I doubt whether I am called upon to give it notice, but there are now questions of the gravest importance before the administration and the country, and their just consideration should, by even the suspicion of thought of a third term. In view, therefore, of the reiteration of the suggestion of it, I will say now, once for all, expressing a long settled conviction, that I not only am not and will not be a candidate for a third term, but would not accept a nomination for it if it were tendered me.

"My only ambition is to serve through my second term to the acceptance of my countrymen, whose generous confidence I so deeply appreciate, and then with them to do my duty in the ranks of private citizenship."

Complaint Against Sulu Sultan.
Washington, June 12.—An issue has been presented to the war department growing out of the exactions by the sultan of Jolo of a tax upon pearl fishers in the waters of the Jolo archipelago. These taxes are small compared to the value of the fisheries and have been laid by the sultan for many years. Up to this time they have never been questioned, but now certain foreign corporations which have brought to the pearl fisheries improved apparatus and methods claim they are exempt from this sort of taxation under the treaty of 1855 between Spain on the one side and England, Germany and France on the other, whereby Spain guaranteed to the other powers the freedom of the fisheries in these waters.

Rubles Seized.
New York, June 12.—Unsettled rubles to the value of 19,000 francs were seized by custom house inspectors in a room in the Grand Union hotel, occupied by two young Belgians. The jewels were brought to this country by them May 27 from Antwerp.

A Terrible Explosion.
"Of a gasoline stove burned a fire here frightfully," writes N. E. Peime, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for Oint, Corns, Sores, Boils, Bruises, Skin Diseases and Piles. 25c at George R. Baker & Son's.

METAL TRADES TO FIGHT THE MACHINISTS.

Members of the Association Agree to Stand by Each Other at the Conference in New York.

New York, June 12—About 300 representatives of the metal trades held a conference here today at the call of the National Metal Trades association. President Edwin Reynolds afterward gave out a lengthy statement which reviews the Chicago agreement as to arbitration made in March, 1900, and accuses the machinists of violating it. It also charges that the machinists willfully misconducted and misrepresented the agreement of May, 1900. A great number of new firms were accepted as members of the association. In order to have the firms they represented admitted to the association, the delegates had to sign an application, in which they subscribed to the following conditions:

First—In consideration of fair dealing being a cardinal principle of the association, we pledge ourselves to protect any of our fellow members who may require our support against any unjust demands of labor organizations, and to endeavor to settle all disputes amicably.

Second—We bind ourselves to obey the constitution and bylaws and all proper rules made in conformity with the same, provided they do not conflict with the constitution of the United States or the state in which we do business.

The conference is attended by Mr. F. L. Fairchild and Mr. C. G. Cooper of this city.

From U. S. N. Located by Marshal Dennis

And Leaves For New York With His Prisoner Last Evening—Thomas Hickman the Man.

On Tuesday Marshal Dennis went to Columbus and brought Thomas Hickman from the workhouse back to this city. Hickman is wanted in New York on a very serious charge, that of desertion. It appears that not long ago Hickman enlisted in the United States Navy at a harbor in Virginia. He remained on the vessel but a short time. He finally came to his home in Mt. Vernon where he got into trouble and got a workhouse sentence.

A few days ago Marshal Dennis received word that Hickman was wanted for desertion. He quickly notified the authorities that he could locate the man. In reply he was told to bring the man to New York at once that all expenses would be paid besides the usual reward. The marshal took Hickman to New York Tuesday evening where he will be compelled to again enter the United States Navy.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

Given By the Class of 1901 in the Auditorium Tuesday Evening.

Tuesday evening the class day exercises of the class of 1901 of the Mt. Vernon High school were given in the auditorium. Over eight hundred people attended the exercises. The entertainment was one of the best ever given by a class of the High school. The entertainment was entitled "A Stringtown Doin's". The synopsis was as follows:

The country choir meets for practice at Uriah Lepsius' home, but rehearsal is broken up because of the entrance of neighbors. The mail having been brought by one of the villagers, Uriah learns, by a delayed letter, that his son with a party of friends is on his way to old Stringtown and will arrive that very night. Mrs. Lepsius discovers that they are without bread and Woodtick is sent for some and incidentally informs everyone he meets of their predicament. After the arrival of more villagers and the city folks, the guests give themselves up to a jolly evening.

STATE RESTED AT 8:55 WEDNESDAY.

Defense Began Introduction of Testimony at One O'clock.

Preserved Footprints Were Ruled Out of Evidence by Court.

An Authentic Outline of the Defense is Given in the Text Below.

The Case Will Likely be Given to the Jury on Saturday.

All the incidents and events of the big trial are fully and accurately given up to the hour of going to press. The arguments will be made on Friday.

State rested at 8:55 Wednesday morning. Adjourned to 1 p. m. End of the trial may be reached this week, case reaching the jury Saturday.

Plan to have arguments made at Woodward opera house abandoned. Additional electric fans have improved condition of court room atmosphere.

Alleged preserved footprints of George Houck were not admitted to evidence.

Generally conceded that the state has made a strong case.

Time limit has not been fixed for arguments. Judge Wickham is preparing elaborate charge to jury.

State has examined 78 witnesses, and defense has subpoenaed 23.

Defense will probably complete its testimony Thursday.

Scott Kirby.

Was jailer in this county last search. Was present on Wednesday with Tom Foster. Took necktie from Houck's neck. Houck was nervous. Saw blood spot on tie. Was also present on Friday when clothes were examined. His testimony was corroborative of Sheriff Lynde's on the examination of the clothes.

Cross examined: Detective Foster asked witness to remove George's tie.

Redirect: Did not hear Foster swear or use profane language toward defendant.

Thomas Foster.

Witness is the detective who assisted in the case. Member of Columbus police force. Came here on Wednesday morning. Saw Houck in jail. Identified necktie, which he had caused to be removed from Houck. Put tie in envelope. Went back to jail and took Houck's coat, shoes, etc. Took small book from Houck's vest pocket. Examined shoes and found blood.

Went to Bladensburg, taking shoes with them. Examined Hess home, footprints. Identified Houck's shoes, said they fitted tracks, especially at mill race. Fitted into 5 tracks and took up 2 tracks. Left these tracks at hotel.

Identified Houck's cap. Drew plot of interior of Hess home. Fitted shoe in tracks in cellar way. Saw another track at race measured, and shoe fitted in.

Examined clothes when returned from Bladensburg and saw blood spots.

Cross examined by Owen. Run a private detective bureau for few years. Raised on a farm. Developed he had once been a preacher. He was given a rigorous cross examination.

Redirect: Tracks were not changed by fitting of shoes. Saw race raked.

James Shellenbarger.

Deputy Sheriff last March. Present in jail on Wednesday. Identified necktie. Heard Foster ask Houck questions. Saw spot on web of shoe.

Cross examined and on redirect examination said that when he tried to talk to Houck on murder he was quiet and said he did not care to talk.

Allen Fink.

City editor Banner. Was present at jail on Friday and saw different articles of clothing with spots that looked like blood spots.

At 4:45 Judge Waight said that the state was practically through, though they did not care to rest until Wednesday morning because they desire to introduce a little more formal testimony.

Joseph Fowle.

Witness testified that he had cut block from back porch. It was introduced in evidence.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

During the night electricians had placed two additional fans, one in front and one in the rear of the jury box. The atmosphere was slightly cooler but still decidedly uncomfortable. The crowd was not so large as on Tuesday.

There was some talk of removing the court to Woodward opera

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

When court convened the crowd had packed the room almost to the point of suffocation. It seemed as though a million fans fluttered, and the big electric fans moved incessantly, but to apparently little effect. It was exactly one o'clock when court was convened.

Zack Melick

Witness is a son of Sarah Jane Hess. He was merely examined by the state to establish his identity, and was excused.

Outline of Defense.

From an examination of the testimony introduced by the state it will be observed that the case must rely upon four points. First, the footprints; second, the bloodhounds; third, the bloody clothing of George Houck; fourth, Houck's actions.

These points will be the main citadels of attack by the defense. Of course they will attempt to house while the arguments were being made, but Judge Wickham has about decided not to do so.

J. C. Leland.

Principal of Mt. Vernon High school. He was used to identify same text books as to whether they are standard works or not.

A. D. Hess.

Stepson of murdered woman. When he heard of murder he went immediately to home. Did not remember much about the tracks.

Cross examined: Keeps a lunch room and grocery.

Frank L. Young.

Optician, studied in Chicago and New York, and O. W. U. Testified as to standard works on vision.

Detective Tom Foster.

Witness was recalled. Said Houck wore gray coat and vest in jail which he said his brother gave him. Other coat and vest was back in cell—the ones which Houck said he wore on Sunday night and which are the ones submitted to a chemical test and exhibited in court.

Thomas Dugan.

Recalled. Saw light in Houck home, upstairs, about time hounds arrived at gate of Houck home.

Schooler C. Horn.

Recalled. Had measured one rack, claimed to have been made by Anson Hess, and found it longer than the Houck tracks. Told of his visit to his brother's store where he measured shoes until he found a pair that corresponded to the measurements. These shoes were exactly like a pair Ross Horn had sold to George W. Houck.

Cross examined: Did not measure shoes anywhere except in Ross Horn's store. Saw dogs make trial run on Tuesday morning. They followed Ora Denney but lost trail twice.

Redirect: Dogs ran rapidly and bellowed all the way.

Re-cross-examination: Dogs stopped at tree and barked very savagely.

Tracks Were Offered.

The state offered the tracks alleged to have been those of George Houck, and which were taken up and preserved. The defense objected and the objection was sustained.

The Houck trousers and shirt were also offered.

The State Rests.

"The state rests," said Judge Waight at 8:55.

At the request of the defense court was then adjourned until 1 p. m.

show a clean alibi, and the defense may be outlined as follows:

Footprints—The contention will be made that the shoes worn by George Houck are not uncommon ones, that their shape, as to sole, is prevalent among the styles of today. Witnesses for this purpose have been summoned, notably, Fred G. Severns, Leander Lewis, W. E. Sefton, of this city, and W. H. Prout, of Newark, all prominent shoe men.

The alibi—A general protestation of the innocence of the accused will be made, and the testimony of Mrs. George Houck, the prisoner's daughter and mother, will be introduced to show that he was at home on the night and at the time the murder was committed.

Blood spots on clothing—Evidence will be shown that Houck, when he was arrested, cut his finger on the door before the murder, and that this and the nose bleed of a member of his family, the bloodspots on his clothing will be accounted for. Expert testimony from Cleveland has also been summoned, which will be used to combat the expert testimony given by Dr. Bleile, of Columbus.

Blood hounds—Supt. Jack McKinley, of the county infirmary, will be introduced to show that blood hounds are not always accurate, from demonstrations made with hounds in his possession at the county infirmary.

DERMODY,

THE TAILOR,

Wishes to announce to his friends and patrons that he has signed the Tailor's Union scale.

UNION MADE GARMENTS

Garments made by us bear the UNION LABEL, a very important feature. This means that the workmen are paid a satisfactory scale of wages, allowing them to turn out their work under the most healthful and favorable conditions. Most people heartily believe in unions and prefer to have their clothes bear a union label, and certainly no one objects.

SHORT AND SUICIDED.

Bank Cashier Was Not Proof Against an Official Examination.

STOOD HIGH IN THE COMMUNITY.

Examiner Sent to Inquire into the Bank's Affairs Closed the Doors and Sent a Startling Report by Wire to His Chief.

Topeka, June 12.—State Bank Examiner Albaugh received the following telegram from Deputy Bank Examiner Davis: "Watkins has killed himself. I have closed the bank." Mr. Davis also wired that a shortage had been discovered amounting to $8,000, and that it might go higher. Complaints had been lodged against the Dexter bank by eastern banks on account of irregular practices in making collections, and Commissioner Albaugh sent Deputy Examiner Davis to Dexter to investigate. His unexpected arrival was followed soon afterward by the suicide of Cashier J. H. Watkins. The Dexter State bank had $5,000 capital stock with $2,500 surplus. The bank's deposits amount to $53,000. W. E. Merridith, a Winfield cattleman, is president, and holds $1,200 of the capital stock.

Watkins was about 30 years old and married. He stood high in the community.

The Public Gallows a Century Ago.

Even if the bicycle had been invented a hundred years ago touring could hardly have become very popular—at all events, for solitary cyclists. The old guidebooks were by no means cheerful reading. A run from London to East Grinstead, a distance of five or six and twenty miles, would have taken the wheelman past three gibbets, and it was just as likely as not that from one or the other of them a body would be swinging in the wind.

Up till the beginning of the nineteenth century the gallows was almost as frequent a landmark as finger posts or public houses have become now. The traveler approaching York is directed by the guidebooks to "turn round by the gallows and three windmills," and the road out of Durham is "between the gallows and Crokehill." Going out of Wells you "cross the brook and pass by the gallows."

—Any number of such directions can be gleaned from the old books for the guidance of travelers a hundred years ago, and as these interesting objects were put up and the dead bodies of malefactors left upon them for the special edification of footpads and highwaymen there was a suggestive-ness about them that must have given a special piquancy to cyclic touring if it had been in vogue at that time.—London News.

Two Narrow Irish Escapes.

—An Irishman, seeing a vessel very heavily laden and scarcely above the water's edge, exclaimed, "Upon my soul, if the river was but a little higher the ship would go to the bottom!"

"See there!" exclaimed the returned Irish soldier to the gaping crowd as he exhibited with some pride his tall hat with a bullet hole in it. "Look at that hole, will you? Ye see, if it had been a low crowned hat I should have been killed outright."

—"Gracious! You don't mean to say you are going to move out to Alghurst?"

"Indeed I am. I consider it an ideal place."

"Huh! You want to read the papers. There's more sickness there than in any other town in this vicinity."

"I know it. I'm a physician."—Catholic Standard and Times.
