

5-6-1939

To Revisit Mount Vernon Monday

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digital.kenyon.edu/kcbhanews>

Recommended Citation

"To Revisit Mount Vernon Monday" (1939). Newspaper Articles. Paper 139.
<https://digital.kenyon.edu/kcbhanews/139>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Knox County Black History Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newspaper Articles by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

To Revisit Mount Vernon Monday

Nine years ago Marian Anderson came to Mount Vernon, a young singer who had just won her first national recognition. Next Monday night she will return to sing at the Memorial theater as one of the great singers of the world. This time she will be greeted by a capacity house. The S.R.O. sign is already out.

SENIOR PLAY ONE OF SCHOOL'S BEST

"320 College Avenue" Earns Rating Of "Splendid"

"The play's the thing."

Ask any member of the Mount Vernon high school 1939 senior class. Ask any one of the 600 persons who crowded into Aldini auditorium for the annual senior play, "320 College Avenue," Friday evening.

They will all say the same thing: "It was splendid."

Presented by a cast of 27 boys and girls, the production represented the height of scholastic stage ability, kept members of the audience in constant suspense and furnished a fitting ending to the career of Joe Hantman, one of the best youthful actors ever turned out of Mount Vernon high school.

Hantman shared top honors for the evening with Marjorie Harris and Louis Jahnke, but their performances were not far ahead of the other 24, all but three of whom were on the stage most of the three acts.

The unusual and highly entertaining theme centered around the attempts of Hantman, cast as a detective, to solve the murder of Lee Macon (Don Dowds). The murder occurred during a party in a sorority house headed by the campus sweetheart, Judith Wayne (Marjorie Harris). The murder was committed while Lee was dancing with Judith and while the lights were out. The instrument of death was a hatpin

• CHURCH NEWS

First Presbyterian—

The Rev. James G. Hunt, pastor. Lucille Cuffler, minister of music. Sabbath-school at 9:45. James Woodland, assistant superintendent in charge. Morning worship at 11. The Rev. Ralph A. Young, assistant to President Wishart in the College of Wooster will fill the pulpit in the absence of Dr. Hunt. Miss Mary Schreck, guest soloist will sing, "Hark, Hark, My Soul" (Speaks). Choir anthem, "Thou Wilt Keep Him In Perfect Peace" (Williams). Kindergarten cares for children during morning worship. Meeting of Episcopal, Congregational, and Presbyterian young people in this church at 6:30 p. m. Subject, "Our Bodies and Minds—At Their Best." Leader, Janice Mitchell. Midweek service Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

First Baptist—

The Rev. L. J. Ramsey, pastor. Church-school at 9:30 a. m. Harley McClenathan, executive superintendent. Walter Nichol, devotional superintendent. Morning worship at 10:45. Holy communion. Service for members received into the church during the past church year. Music by the quartet. Subject, "Christian Requirements." B.Y.P.U. at 6:30 p. m. Miss Dorothy Grimm will have charge of the service. Gordon Harrod, president, Mr. and Mrs. John Haltermon, advisors. Evening worship at 7:30. Program given by the pupils of week-day religious education of the public schools under the supervision of Miss Rose Altic. Mid-week service Wednesday, "Glorious in Suffering." The public is invited to attend all services.

Mulberry St. Methodist—

The Rev. D. L. Custis, pastor. E. E. Allspaugh, Sunday-school superintendent. School at Morning worship at 10:45. Mon: "Our Church." Junior class in charge of Mrs. Custis. Christian Endeavor group at 6:30. Evening worship at 8:00. Sermon: "Which Voice?" Music business meeting follows and praise meeting Wednesday evening, May 10.

Wayman Chapel A. M. E.—

The Rev. J. C. Gresham, pastor. Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m. Simmons, superintendent. Morning worship at 10:45. Sermon subject, "How To Forgive." by the choir. Young people meeting at 8 p. m. Nellie president. Evening service at 8 p. m. Music by the choir. Midweek service Wednesday at 8 p. m. rehearsal Friday at 8 p. m. dial welcome to all.

Mt. Calvary Baptist—

The Rev. M. L. Mitchell, pastor. Sunday-school at 9:30. William Morton, superintendent. Morning church service at 10:45. The senior choir will sing. F. U. at 6 p. m. Miss Juanita Iden, president. Evening service at 7:30. Music by the senior. Mid-week prayer service at 8 p. m. Wednesday. The public welcome.

St. Paul's Episcopal—

The Rev. Alex. Hawke, pastor. F. W. Stamm, organist. choir director. Paul Nolle, superintendent of the school. Services for the Sunday after Easter. The communion will be celebrated