CAMPUS NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

THE SECURITY OFFICE strongly recommends that all students make certain that their rooms are locked whenever they are not in the room. Please report any persons who do not seem to be a part of the College to the Security Office promptly. Bikes should be locked securely to some immovable object. This is the time of the year—that we have an influx of off-campus persons invading the dorms and parking lots, with the resultant loss of personal property.

THE FINAL FALL GEC STUDENT LECTURE will be given Tues. Dec. 5 at 7:30 in Philo by Tom Claire. He will present brief introductory remarks on Paul Valéry's "LE CIMETIERE MARIN," followed by a discussion of the metaphors of the poem. By lingual editions will be on reserve at Chalmers Library.

THE COMMITTEE ON AWARDS AND POSTGRADUATE OPPORTUNITIES has compiled a list of fellowships. The list includes: Ford Foundation Minority Student Fellowships, New York City Urban Fellowships, East-West Center Grants, California State Scholarship and Loan Commission Graduate Fellowships, HUD Urban Studies Fellowships, and National Wildlife Federation Environmental Conservation Fellowships. You may obtain more information from John Johnson, 109 S. Mather.

BRIDGE PLAYERS: The Mount Vernon Bridge Club hosts its annual Christmas Duplicate Tournament on Sunday, Dec. 11 at the YMCA. Afternoon session begins at 1 p.m. (draw for partners) and the evening session at 6 p.m. (with your own partner). Dinner will be served at 5 p.m. Cost for dinner is $3.75; tournaments are free. Make reservations with Mable Harris before Thursday (392-3626). Contact Bill Bechtel (427-2441) for further information.
