Annual Banquet Debaters' Society.

Representative high school spellbinders and exponents of logic for the past eight years assembled Friday night at Turner's restaurant to banquet and attend the annual meeting of the Mt. Vernon high school Debaters' society, which reunions are becoming more and more popular as was attested by the presence of some forty people at Friday night's affair.

The banquet tables were decorated with the orange and black of Mt. Vernon high school which was so arranged as to form pretty squares of rather large proportions. Potted flowers around which orange and black was wound, also rested on the table at intervals.

The following excellent menu, prepared by Frank Turner, proprietor of the restaurant, was served:

Olive	Grape Fruit	Nuts
Roast Chicken	Maashed Potatoes	Sage Dressing
Oyster Patties	Fruit Salad	Neapolitan Ice Cream
Coffee

Following the dinner, Hoy L. Russell, president of the society for the year 1915-16, arose as toastmaster and, with a few introductory remarks, in an amiable fashion proceeded to introduce the speakers of the evening.

Many enthusiastic utterances were made during the progress of speech-making, many clever thoughts sprang forth, while all had something entertaining to say. The following spoke: Coach W. L. Saunders, Miss Elinor Hobbs, Dan Houck, Olive Black, William McBroom, George Congdon, Merritt Chambers and Miss Jean L. McIntosh.

At the conclusion of the toasts, organization for the ensuing years was effected as follows:

President—Donald H. Harper.
Vice President—George Congdon.
Secretary-Treasurer—Merritt Chambers.

It was decided to retain the present date for holding the annual meetings, and to ask the Forum staff society to shift its yearly meeting to an earlier or later period.

ALTHOUSE

A Stimulus To Singers—His Rise Sensational

The recent sensational rise of Paul Althouse, tenor, will always remain an incentive to young American singers. Five years ago he was chemist for the Reading Coal Iron Co., and was soloist in the local church. His ambition was to sing in opera, and through Oscar Hammerstein, he was given the opportunity. He has since had a most marvelous success for one so young.

He has been soloist with the New York Symphony orchestra under Walter Damrosch's direction; has been engaged with the Metropolitan Opera Co. of New York city, which, in itself, places him among the elect; and he has been constantly engaged in concert work along with these other engagements. He has been employed by a talking machine company and his records are very popular.

At a recent engagement at Utica, N. Y., he was immediately engaged for next year. The Utica Observer says "Mr. Althouse sang with a warmth of feeling and dramatic expression that gained the immediate approval of the house. His voice is not only rich, powerful and sweet, but also subtle in expression."

To those who were so enthused by Evan Williams' singing last year, Mr. Althouse is said, by those who have heard him, to be the equal, if not the peer, of that distinguished artist.

VALUABLE HINTS

To Those Sending Announcements to Paper for Publication

The following paragraph is found in a little booklet on "Hints to correspondents and those who write occasional news items," and might well be borne in mind by persons to send to this office for publication advance mention of meetings of church or lodge organizations or such other notices as are of interest to a comparatively few readers rather than of general interest:

"Do not phrase notices of coming meetings in the language of 'pulpit announcements.' Remember that the newspaper is impersonal and makes these announcements for all people, all sects, all denominations. Therefore it does not 'hope every member will be present' or feel that 'this is a glorious work' and should be liberally supported, or express the

FIRE

In Walker Lumber Yard With Loss Of $700

What might have been a very disastrous fire was averted early Saturday morning by the prompt action of the fire department at the Walker lumber yard on West Vine street.

The fire department was called about 12:45 o'clock and found a brisk conflagration in the storage room, which required about an hour and a half to subdue.

Mr. Walker stated Saturday morning that his loss would probably be about $700. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to have started by a spark from the engine lighting in a pile of waste.

The loss was partially covered by insurance.

answer and cross-petition has been filed by Alice Browne Moore in an action for divorce instituted by K. Moore. She denies all charges made by her husband, and alleges that he represented that worth $40,000 when all his possession was a promissory note for $1,000 to her, and that she gave the note for four pianos, two of which she still owns. She charges Moore with adultery with women of loose character; that he represented himself as morally pure, "that he was a modern Don Juan"; that he associated with women of loose character; that he maintained no correspondence with Co-women. She charges that he committed adultery with a Gambler.
