My Dear Lord Kenyon:

I enclose a letter which I beg your Lordship will have the goodness to forward to "Lady Palmer of Wanslip Hall, ^{near} Leicester."

The affairs of Ohio go on pretty well I dined with the Lord Bishop of Durham to day ~~in the presence of the Rev Mr. Whateley~~ His Lordship told me I must ~~be~~ push the matter of Ohio faster than heretofore in London - and that nothing but the circulation of the "Appeal" was necessary ~~to~~ ^{the attainment of} full success which in the name of God ~~he gave most solemnly he wished me~~

This is great encouragement. But what am I in London? Your Lord's name & especially the personal influence which ~~you~~ has been vouchsafed goes much farther than you Lordship may think.
Most grateful am I ^{for the best} & beg it may be continued.
