DOWN OUR WAY

MT. VERNON, OHIO
By IRENE SHARP

Mrs. Annamae Morton, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Lewis of Ridgewood ave., and Leland Briggs of Barnesville were married Friday evening, April 7. Rev. G. L. Bennett performed the ceremony at the home of the bride. Preceding the ceremony Orval Hayes sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." The bride, who was given in marriage by a friend of the family, Samuel Payne, wore a smart teal blue suit with pale pink accessories and a gardenia corsage. Her only attendant, Mrs. Orval Hayes, was dressed in Navy blue with pale blue accessories. Hilbert Myers was the bridegroom's best man. Capt. Raines of the Salvation Army led prayer at the ceremony. Following the ceremony the couple, their attendants and thirty guests were honored at a reception given by the bride's family.

Guiding Star sewing club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Samuel Payne with seven members present. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Ella Carter. The service was then in the hands of Mrs. Anna Turner, vice president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Bessie Newsum. The roll call was read and each one present responded with a scripture verse and paid dues. A lovely social time was enjoyed and the hostess assisted by her daughter, Vera, served her guests. The decorations were carried out in keeping with Easter. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. C. J. Turner, Clinton rd., April 28. Mrs. George Newsum is to have charge of the devotionals.

Mr. and Mrs. Orien Peterson of Columbus were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Peterson of Cottage st.

The 20th Century club held its sewing meeting Monday evening at the home of its vice president, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Oberlin st. After the business and sewing for the evening were dispensed with the hostess served refreshments to her guests.
