Rev. Sir.

I was favored with your letter & its enclosure from Mr. Simeon this morning -- It w^d. have given me great pleasure to be the bearer of our little contributions in aid of the Churches abroad -- but during Mr. Marsh's absence it will be impossible ^{on Sunday} -- The time too is short -- We are a poor people with many calls on their liberality --

I have no doubt Mr. Marsh, on his return, will make the most of his influence, on your behalf: ~~on his return~~ and contrive to have the amount collected, conveyed to you -- Wishing you abundant success

I remain

Rev. Sir

Your obed^t. Faithful Serv^t

Jno Harrington
