NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

- President Nixon has fired Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox; Attorney General Elliott Richardson has resigned, as William Ruckelshaus also claims to have done. These occurrences stemmed from the controversy over the Presidential tapes. Several Congressmen and Senators have expressed themselves as being in favor of the President either resigning or being impeached. However, Melvin Laird, Domestic Advisor to the President, said in an interview that he was "confident that Congress will take a negative position" regarding impeachment.
- The Oakland Athletics won the World Series with a 7th-game 2-0 victory over the New York Mets.

The Kenyon Debate Team went to Akron University on Saturday and brought home a 5th place trophy out of a field of 20 teams. Congratulations, Debaters!!!
