Letter to C.P. McIlvaine

Edwin Guest Dr.

The Charles P. McIlvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Carr's Lodge

Dec. 12 1861

My dear Bishop

I have just escaped from a College Meeting
and have only time
to say that beds
will be ready for you at Carr's Lodge

to-morrow & that Mr. Guest will be delighted to make the acquaintance
of the Mrs. McPherson.

If you let me know
at a sufficiently early hour, what train

you come by I will send the carriage
to meet you at the Station

Yours very sincerely

Edwin Guest
