For Representative

This year the people of Knox county are making a searching investigation regarding the candidates for representative in order that they may not go amiss in making a proper choice on election day.

And they are exactly right in doing that very thing.

The more they investigate the better are they pleased with John Cunningham, the nominee of the Democratic party for the office.

John Cunningham gets close to the hearts of the people. He is still a young man, not yet having quite reached his 30th year, but he is old enough to have reached the age of ripe judgment. He possesses a discriminating mind and is able to understand what is best, in the way of legislation, for the diversified interests of Knox county—the commercial, laboring and agricultural.

He is a man of a high order of intelligence and strict probity. He received his education in the district school near his home and at Kenyon college, Gambier, and has since devoted himself to farming. He is not only a practical, every-day farmer, but he is a successful farmer. No one is more familiar with the needs of the farmer in the way of legislation.

His success as a farmer has demonstrated that he is a first class business man, as it requires business ability of a high order to successfully conduct a farm, the same as it does any industry.

John Cunningham takes the sensible view that anything that is good for the workingman of the cities and towns in the way of legislation that will better their condition, is not only right in itself, but that it is beneficial to the farmer, as the best consumer of the surplus products of the farmer is the workingman of city, and that consequently their interests travel along parallel lines.

In the legislature, John Cunningham will be found giving careful heed to the best interests of the people of Knox county, no matter how varied these interests may be.

Receiver For Brokers. Chicago, Oct. 14.—The firm of A. J. Whipple & Company, stock and grain brokers at 145 Monroe street, voluntarily placed its affairs in the hands of a receiver. John Ailing, one of the members of the firm, went before Judge S. H. Bethea in United States district court and declared that the firm could no longer stand up under the heavy financial disturbances resulting from the panic of 1901 and that a receiver should be appointed. The Western Trust and Savings bank was appointed to take charge of the assets of the company. No statement was filed setting up the liabilities or assets of the company, but Mr. Ailing declared that the liabilities would reach at least $100,000. The assets, it is said, will amount to less than $25,000. The receiver will take immediate charge and the firm will go out of business as soon as its affairs can be wound up.

Grand Auction Sale

Building Lots

Kenmore Allotment

Pleasant, Catherine and Brodcock Streets MT. VERNON, OHIO

Tuesday, October 17th, '05

At 1:30 O'clock

THIS beautiful tract of building ground is located on the north side of Pleasant Street fronting on the electric road so that Catherine and Braddock Streets extended north of Pleasant pass through the property dividing it into 57 large, level lots all high and dry, making each an ideal home site.

There are eleven on Pleasant street and the rest are on Catherine and Braddock streets, making all lots convenient to the electric road and also within easy walking distance of the business center; Kenmore being the nearest the square of any open land. This locality is free from smoke, and there are no railroads to cross in going to the business center, or the schools, while the gas extends across the property front in Pleasant street.

For the purpose of getting these lots advertised a d interesting builders and investors in them at once, we will sell a part of the lots at auction next Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

This will be a genuine auction, with no by-bidders and no restriction as the starting bid, nor as to the number of bids required for a sale, but every lot put up will be sold to the highest bidder, regardless of what the bid may be, making this the grandest opportunity ever offered the homeseekers and investors of Mt. Vernon.

Terms Very Liberal $10.00 cash at time of sale; $5.00 on signing a contract within three days, and the balance in 6 months, with 6 per cent interest, or we give a discount of 5 per cent on the balance for cash within three days.

Free Deed In Case of Death In the contract of every payments we place a clause agreeing that in case of the purchaser's death before the lot is fully paid for, we will deed the lot to the purchaser's heirs without further payment or expense.

Free Presents To those who attend this sale we shall give the beautiful line of Silverware, valued at $600.00, now on exhibition in the window of L. C. Penn's Music Store, 14 S. Main Street. You do not have to buy a lot to get a present, but you must be at the sale. No presents given to children.

Free Special Cars For adults only, leave the Public Square promptly at 1:00 o'clock, returning after sale.

FREE BAND CONCERT

On the street before the cars start and at the sale

Ask Yourself these Questions:

How long have I been paying rent? How much money have I wasted in this way? Why can't I own my own home? If I do not, what shall I do when old age overtakes me? Where is the best place to buy a lot? Who will give me the best terms on a lot? Then look these lots over carefully, inform yourself as to their value, study our terms and attend the sale next Tuesday afternoon.

When the new plants now building are in full operation, 5000 people will be added to the population of our city and must be housed. All our houses are now occupied, so that several hundred more must be built at once.

From a knowledge acquired by doing a general developing business all over the state, having sold over 1000 lots this season, we can make the positive statement that today there is not in Ohio another spot where houses are so urgently needed, or where real estate values will see so great an advance in the next year as in Mt. Vernon, so we say to every man who wishes to improve his financial condition, buy well located Mt. Vernon Real Estate.

H. S. Campbell & Co. will furnish to purchasers at this sale the money with which to build houses just as soon as their lots are paid for, so that under existing conditions the rapid development of Kenmore is assured.

We shall push this property. Houses will be built and values will advance, and next Tuesday you can buy these choice, beautifully located, tailor-made home sites for just what you want to pay, as we shall sell without reserve.

So if you do not secure your share of the advance now taking place in Mt. Vernon real estate, it is because you will not, and not because you cannot, as a cash payment of only $10.00 secures any lot on the property.

Buy one of these lots on our easy terms and it will double in value before you get it paid for. Buy one of these lots and its advance in value in the next six months will make more money for you than you can make in three months' hard work in the shop if you save every dollar you earn.

Make a start now! Quit paying rent! Own your own home and be independent! You can do it if you will, as it only requires a cash payment of $10.00 to make a start at Kenmore next Tuesday afternoon. These lots are right, the terms are right and price must be right, for you make it yourself.

We bought the property for spot cash, and shall convey by warranty deed, giving an absolutely perfect title, as shown by our abstract of the property prepared by Mr. C. V. Trott, which can be examined by any one who care to do so at his office.

The Ladies Frequently show the best judgment, and are most fortunate in their investments. They are cordially invited to attend this sale, and will be accorded every courtesy. In fact our best class of ladies and gentlemen in the community.

A half holiday will do you good, so come out and hear the band concert, get a beautiful present, if lucky, and enjoy the afternoon with us, whether you are interested in building lots or not.

Remember the Date Tuesday, October 17th, 1:30 p. m. 1:00 o'clock. SALE POSITIVE, RAIN OR SHINE.

Smith Realty Co. HERBERT W. SMITH, Auctioneer.

HOW SHARPER THAN A SERPENT'S TOOTH TO TELL THE TRUTH

Among the batch of political matter that daily comes to the Leader from Republican state headquarters at Columbus we find an article, in yesterday's batch, under the caption of "Roosevelt Wants Herrick." If he does the president has changed his mind since last winter, at which time the governor's friends put forth every effort possible to secure for him an appointment under the national administration. No, we don't think President Roosevelt wants Herrick—at least he doesn't want him to hold office under him. * * * And thousands of Republicans in Ohio don't want him to hold office over them, either.—Caldwell Leader (Republican).

SPENDTHRIFT BALZAC.

Extravagance of the Man Who Had a Mountain of Debts.

"With Balzac's rising fame rises the mountain of his debts," writes a critic. "These, starting from his two disastrous years of printing and publishing in Paris, accumulated until at the top of his literary renown he had to hide from his creditors in a garret under the name of his landlady or his washerwoman. In 1837 Balzac, at that date the best known and the most debated novelist in France, owed 162,000 francs, about $32,500. Then he must needs buy a cane which was the talk of Paris, some gold buttons for a new coat, a 'divine opera glass' and a dressing gown beyond words and give a dinner to the dandies of the opera respecting which Rossini said that he had not seen more magnificence when he dined at royal tables."

"Balzac three times a millionaire would still have buried himself in debt, for the mental exaltation of his creative hours was reproduced when he broke loose from the galley bench. He lavished in anticipation the wealth he had dreamed would be his. This gone, he borrowed anew or devised another of those schemes that were to enrich him beyond the possibilities of literature. His schemes were essentially a part of Balzac, the sovereign, unquerable visionary.

"He would transport oaks from Poland to France; nothing like oaks from Poland! To make your fortune three times over! Behold him again gravely working out his plan to make a corner in all the arts and putting up the Apollo Belvedere for competition among the nations—to act as auctioneer to Europe—the 'child man,' as his devoted sister, Mme. Surville, used to call him."

How Swallows Drink.

Of course we know that swallows drink as they skim over the surface of water. We have seen how here and there the water ripples on a pond when swallows are gracefully skimming to and fro. One day I sat down beside a small pond where every evening many barn swallows came to bathe and drink on the surface of the glassy water. With sketch book and pencil in hand I closely watched the birds, and you may imagine my delight to see just how they managed to touch and dip up the water as they came within a few steps of me. You see, the swallow takes up water in its lower bill just as you would dip up a little water in a spoon or in the hollow of your hand while you glided over the surface in a boat. Only the under half of the open bill touches the water. If the upper half were also to touch, the water would be forced out on either side instead of being scooped up into the bill.—St. Nicholas.

A Lake That Stores Heat.

There is a lake that stores the sun's heat at Medvee, in northeastern Transylvania. Thick beds of rock salt underlie the district, and a similar formation appears upon the surface in mounds, some of them over 100 feet in height. Among these the lake rests at fully 1,500 feet above sea level. Upon the surface its water is almost sweet, four inches below there is a twentieth of salt, at two feet there is one-fifth, and at five feet the water is practically saturated with salt. In September, after a summer's sunshine, the thermometer showed the lake's waters to be 150 degrees four feet down. Even by April, after a whole season of wintry weather, it had only been reduced to 80 degrees. Experiments have proved that this is due to absorption and retention of the sun's heat by the salt saturated solution.

Grace Knives.

There is a curious class of knives of the sixteenth century the blades of which have engraved on one side the musical notes to the benediction of the table, or grace before meat, and on the other the grace after meat. These knives usually went in sets of four, representing a four part harmony of bass, tenor, alto and treble. They were kept in an upright case of stamped leather and were placed before the singers according to the adaptation of each one to his particular part. As may be supposed, the inscription was usually in Latin. The following specimen is taken from actual knives of the period: "Pro tuis beneficiis Deus, gratias agimus tibi" (For thy good gifts, O God, we thank thee).

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO END BOSSISM AND GRAFT

There is, of course, only one way to put an end to bossism and graft. That way is to vote for Pattison and every man on the ticket with him. If you would break up the reign of boodle and graft, this is the way to do it.

THE MAGICAL DURIAN.

It Brings the Highest Price of Any Oriental Fruit.

It was at the height of the durian season, when all animal kind in Malay, two legged and four legged, is animated by an insatiable lust for the fruit itself and quick to fill with savage anger against whatever stands in the way of satisfying its appetite, for not the least remarkable quality of this remarkable fruit is the amatory effect it has upon those who consume it, says Caspar Whitney in Oating. All durian eating Malays, man and beast, are aflame with erotic fire. The jungle resounds with the fighting of loveborn brutes and the towns awaken to courtship.

The durian is about the size of a pineapple, with a similarly rough outside covering armed with half inch spikes which are tough and sharp. It grows on trees fully sixty feet in height whose trunks are bare of limbs except at the very top, and when the fruit ripens it drops to the ground. So as the season approaches natives erect small huts under the tree or near by, from which they watch for the falling fruit.

Those who are fortunate enough to have such trees growing on their own land practically live on the income derived from the sale of the durian; for in the peninsular market it brings the highest price of any eastern fruit. In the jungle edge, where these trees have no ownership, the race to build the first hut and thus establish proprietary interest in the falling fruit is equal in intensity to a land rush, and in the jungle the natives must compete also with the wild beasts that share man's fondness for this extraordinary fruit.

Once in the jungle as I sat smoking, puzzling out some lost seladang tracks, a falling durian attracted my attention. The nearby trees seemed alive with monkeys racing to first reach the ground. One monkey that had been left at the post, so to say, deliberately descended from the top of the tree where he sat, fully forty feet, into the top of a smaller tree below, whence he swung to the ground. But, though he beat out the others, the durian had disappeared. A small leopard-like creature had sneaked off the fruit, and I was too absorbed in watching the aerial flight of the monkey to get more than a glimpse of the thief. The troop of monkeys that instantly forgot their discussion of the situation loudly and in very obvious anger.

WHERE LUCK WAS LOST.

In trying to take short cuts to success.

In looking on the dark side of everything.

In overconfidence born of a first easy victory.

In not working to a plan or programme.

In not being ready for the opportunity when it came.

In sampling every kind of investment scheme that came along.

In dreaming of great things instead of doing the little ones at hand.

In being so disagreeable and selfish that they could not make friends.

In waiting for somebody to help them or give them a boost or for some rich uncle to die.

In refusing to take the positions they could get because they did not know whether they would like the work or not.—Success.

The Outlook For History.

History must be human, making its final appeal not as a monument of erudition, but as a masterpiece of art, in which the collective deeds and passions of men shall be not merely pictured with photographic accuracy, but vitalized and interpreted. Let us not suppose that this is a new aim. The great historians have always held it. The idea that Thucydides and Tacitus neglected to consult all the material available in their time is ludicrous. Gibbon knew his "sources" as profoundly as the impeccably correct Gardiner. Mommsen, we may be sure, had not, like Stuiob, a body of evidence which he dared not explore. The master historians in the future, by whatever method they may work, will prove themselves to be akin to these in insight, in power and in art.—W. R. Thayer in Atlantic.

Had Them Either Way.

In his "Recollections of a Virginian" General Dabney H. Maury tells of an old lady in Fredericksburg who was reduced to taking in boarders in order to make both ends meet. On one occasion of peculiar stress the larder was so empty that the good lady took to her bed and summoned her servant, "Nancy," she said, "there's nothing in the house for my boarders to eat except mush. But give them that. If they are Christians they will accept in resignation and thankfulness. And if they are not Christians it is a deal too good for them."

Reap Your Reward In Peace.

You have a disagreeable duty to do at 12 o'clock. Do not blacken 9 and 10 and 11 and all between with the color of 12. Do the work of each and reap your reward in peace, so when the dreaded moment in the future becomes the present you shall meet it walking in the light, and that light will overcome its darkness.—George McDonald.

Encouragement.

Mr. Bashleigh—Miss Dora, I couldn't begin to tell you how much I—I—Dora Hope—You certainly have been a long time beginning, my poor boy. Go ahead.—Chicago Tribune.

Occupied.

First Cook—An' what was yer talkin' about? Second Cook—Oh, we was discussin' the mistress problem.—Puck.

ONE CONTEST ENDED.

New York Nationals Need One Game to Settle the Championship.

New York, Oct. 14.—Three to one is the advantage the New York Nationals hold over the Philadelphia Americans in the struggle for the world's championship. If the New Yorks win one more game the world's championship flag will fly from the big mast on the Polo grounds. Score:

New York . . . 000100000—159
Philadelphia . . . 000000000—051
Batteries—McGinnily and Bresnahan; Plank and Powers. Attendance, 13,593.

Boston Americans Won.

Boston, Oct. 14.—The Boston American league team won the deciding game in the post series with the Boston National league team by a score of 6 to 2. The series stands four to one in favor of the Americans. Batteries: Tannehill and Armbruster; Willis and Moran. Attendance, 1,725.

Standoff at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 14.—Taylor made his third attempt of the present post-season series to pitch the local Nationals into victory, but failed for the first time. The series stands two and two. Batteries: Taylor and Grady; Howell and Spencer.

Two For Chicago Nationals.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The Nationals won the third game of the Chicago championship series, 3 to 2. Batteries: Weimer and Kling; White, Sullivan and McFarland. Attendance, 12,184.

Accused of Conspiracy.

New York, Oct. 14.—The profits of the alleged conspirators in operations based on the recent leak in government cotton crop reports are placed approximately at $200,000, according to an indictment presented in court on the arraignment before a United States commissioner of Frederick A. Peckham and Moses Haas. According to charges made in this indictment Edwin S. Holmes, Jr., associate statistician of the department of agriculture, received $25,017. A check dated Dec. 12, drawn on the Second National bank of Hoboken and signed by Lewis C. Van Riper, calls for the payment of $24,250 to M. Haas, of which sum it is alleged Haas paid Holmes $14,250 in cash. Many other minor checks for sums ranging from $100 to $500 are set forth in the indictment, in addition to another check signed by Van Riper and payable to Haas on the same bank for $38,292, dated Dec. 31, 1904. Of this sum it is claimed Holmes got $10,797. Counsel moved for the discharge of the prisoners on the ground that the charge as alleged does not constitute an offense against the government. The hearing on the motion was adjourned until Oct. 21.

Insurance Investigation.

New York, Oct. 14.—The legislative insurance committee believes its investigation will lap over well into 1906 and that doubtless it will be necessary to ask of the next legislature a continuation of the committee's powers, despite Senator Armstrong's declaration early in the investigation that it would close before Dec. 31. The belief that the investigation must be prolonged is based on a number of considerations. Among the contributory factors it is understood are the far-reaching importance of the investigation, the newly realized depth and complexity of the subject, the intention to extend the investigation's scope to certain fraternal societies, and the absence from the state of many important witnesses.

Trade Review.

New York, Oct. 14.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Higher rates for money tend to prevent excesses in Wall street, yet there is no difficulty in securing funds for mercantile undertakings. The first interest in holiday trade is noted, and this element promises to supply unprecedented business this year. Manufacturers are so fully occupied that contracts for early delivery can not be considered in most cases, and the amount of business that will be carried over into 1906 will certainly eclipse all records. These sanguine prospects are confidently announced in several of the leading industries, latest news from the iron furnaces and steel mills being notably gratifying.

Postal Receipts.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The postal receipts for the 50 largest cities in the United States during September aggregated $5,523,500, against $5,907,203 for the same month in 1904. The report on the subject shows that Portland, Ore., on account of the exposition there, had the heaviest percentage of increase. Likewise St. Louis, Mo., shows the greatest percentage of decrease, because of the record made during the exposition a year ago. The heaviest decrease under normal conditions was made at Dayton, O., and the heaviest increase at Brooklyn, N. Y., with Los Angeles second.

Fatality at Funeral.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 14.—While on her way to the funeral of Fred Schurch, who committed suicide two days after his marriage, Mrs. Charles Wittwer was thrown from a buggy in a runaway and her neck broken. She lived only a few minutes.

West Reappointed.

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Roosevelt reappointed Henry L. West, a Washington newspaper man, as the Democratic member of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia. West was appointed commissioner three years ago.

Coleur Nominated.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Municipal Ownership league selected Bird S. Coleur for borough president of Brooklyn.

Citation of Harvester Trust.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—At the request of Attorney General Ellis, Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, the Cleveland attorneys, were advised as representatives in Ohio of the International Harvester company to appear here Oct. 21 and show why proceedings to oust the company from this state should not be begun at once. Notice will also be sent to five or six of the signers of the petition asking the attorney general to invoke the anti-trust law against the combine. The company has a New Jersey charter, capital stock of $120,000,000, of which $2,500,000 represents the plant of the Warde, Bushnell & Glessner company at Springfield. There is also a distributing and selling agency called the International Harvester Company of America, with warehouses at Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus and Toledo.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; acidism or uric acid indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

On Oct. 17 and 18 the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company will sell excursion tickets from all points in Ohio to Cincinnati, Ohio, at rate of one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip, account Ohio Baptist Convention. Tickets will be good for return until October 20, 1905.

October 16 to 20, inclusive, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all local stations west of Pittsburg and Wheeling, also Ohio River Division, at very low rates for the round trip to Los Angeles, Cal., account Woman's Christian Temperance Union Convention, good for return until November 30.

ONE WAY

Oysters are taken from the shells, packed for an instant under running water, held closely in a clean, white enameled case, sealed, imbedded in ice in a Sealship Oyster Carrier and sent directly to the dealer. They are not opened till they reach the market. The result is firm, fresh, grey oysters—the justly famed

Sealship Oysters

ANOTHER WAY Oysters are taken from the shells, dumped into a wooden tub, soggy from long use. Chunks of ice are added from time to time by hands clean or otherwise. The cover is usually on—hot always. Formaldehyde is added as it becomes necessary. The result is white, flabby, unwholesome oysters of no flavor—tub oysters of all brands.
