Letter to S.P. Chase

Charles Petit McIlvaine

The Charles P. McIlvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

New York, House of Bishops
Oct. 10. 1862

My dear Mr Chase

I enclose a copy (prepared by myself) of the service used on Wednesday last, in Trinity Ch. by the House of Bps. & the Clerical & Lay Deputies of the other House of the Gen. Convention, & a large additional congregation the day having been set apart for themselves by the Bishops - & the other House having been invited to join - I never attended a more impressive service.

I am sorry to hear of your lameness - & hope it is fast passing away -

Please remember my affection for a place of assistant Collector under the Tax Law of my friend Mr Edw<sup>d</sup> Harrison of Brooklyn. He lives in the <sup>3rd</sup> District of which Henry C. Bowen is the Collector - & Alfred M. Wood is Collector of the 2nd & is known by several of Mr Harrison's friends. - Mr Harrison informs me that all the agents in those Districts have not been appointed. A word from you to either of them, would do all the cause the case is special. I would earnestly ask of you the kindness

Yours respectfully

Chas. P. McShane

Mr Harrison's Address is Edw. A. Harrison 240
