PERJURY CHARGE LIKELY AGAINST INSURANCE MAN

Clerk Denies Signing Paper Before The Committee

Mutual Life Kept House At Albany For Certain Members Of The Legislature According To An Employee Of The Society--Mc Curdy Talks

New York, Oct. 19.—William M. Carpenter, a clerk in the supply department of the Mutual Life Insurance company, was called before the legislative committee. He testified he was under the direction of A. C. Fields, the superintendent of this department, and was very close to Mr. Fields in his "legislative supervision" at Albany. Mr. Carpenter told of how a house has been maintained in Albany for several years at the expense of the Mutual Life. Mr. Fields occupied it only during the legislative session, and on several occasions members of the insurance committee of the legislature lived at the house with Mr. Fields. Mr. Carpenter leased the house and paid for the servants and supplies with money furnished him by the Mutual Life. No account was kept of these expenditures, and the money was all received in vouchers calling for disbursements for legal expenses. A house has been maintained for a period of about 10 years in Albany under these conditions, but not always in the same street.

The district attorney's office was called on by the committee because of testimony of one witness, and the question of an arrest for perjury is now being considered by Assistant District Attorney Rand. The witness in question is George J. Plunkitt, an 18-year-old telephone operator in the employ of the stationery firm of L. W. Lawrence & Company, from whom the Mutual Life Insurance company purchased a great deal of its supplies of this nature. It was brought out in the testimony that among the vouchers for money charged to legal expenses was one for $901 signed by George J. Plunkitt. His identity was not disclosed until Plunkitt was called to the stand. He testified as to his employment, and when shown the voucher denied that he had ever signed it. He further denied that he had ever received that amount of money from the Mutual Life Insurance company or that he had rendered any service. Mr. Hughes asked Plunkitt to write his name in ink on a piece of paper, which he did. This and the voucher were then offered in evidence, and the similarity of the signatures was called to the attention of the committee.

Edgar W. Rogers, clerk for L. W. Lawrence & Company, was called and testified that he was represented by John B. Stanchfield, who is also the president of the Globe Printing company. He was shown the Plunkitt voucher, and said he was of the opinion that the signature on the voucher and that written by Plunkitt on the stand were identical.

When Mr. McCurdy was recalled, the president said he did not know that the Mutual Life's funds had been maintaining this house, although he did know that Mr. Fields had rented a house to escape the risk of illness in hotels. He was assured Mr. Fields paid $800 rent. Mr. Carpenter said the entire expense of running the house had been about $2,500.

The matter of the subsidiary companies of the Mutual Life was taken up, and Mr. McCurdy said the prosperity of these companies was largely due to the interest of the Mutual Life in them, but the Mutual Life did not control them. The reason for the formation of subsidiary companies Mr. McCurdy explained, remarking: "Premiums began to come in with far greater rapidity than we anticipated, and we had to find an immediate means for the fructification of our money. The officers of the life insurance companies were not expert bankers. They had been brought up in the life insurance business, and we had never been large buyers of securities. It was felt the company should get closer to the market, but we had no organization for the purpose and our officers were not trained to do it. The only thing we could do was to invest in trust companies."

Attorney Hughes made an effort to get trace of Thomas D. Jordan, former controller of the Equitable Life Assurance society. Frank B. Jordan was called under a subpoena and he said he saw his father last Labor day. He did not know then that he was going away and did not know where he was now. Under persistent questioning by Mr. Hughes, Jordan said no mail was forwarded to his father and that he did not know whether his father or his mother was living or dead.

Want Smith Recalled.
Burlington, Ia., Oct. 19.—A sensation developed at the Iowa Catholic congress, in session here. In a speech before the congress Celestine J. Sullivan, late of the Philippines, denounced James T. Smith, a Catholic member of the Philippine commission, accusing Mr. Smith of working against Catholic educational interests in the islands. The congress adopted resolutions asking President Roosevelt to recall Smith. Over 2,000 Catholics were present at the meeting.

THE OLD TIME FORM SHOWN BY MCGOVERN

Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—Terry McGovern defeated Tommy Murphy in one round at the National Athletic club. McGovern floored Murphy six times in the two minutes and two seconds the round lasted. Murphy was then so dazed and helpless that the referee stopped the bout. McGovern showed his old-time form, fighting hard and fast from the sound of the bell. He opened the round by swinging hard to Murphy's face and neck. He followed this with a hard blow to the body and then to the ear which all McGovern. He landed at will. Murphy began mixing it up and came down six times, and each time McGovern stood over him and struck him blow after blow. Finally Murphy became defenceless and the referee stepped in and ended the uneven contest. Murphy was carried to his corner in an almost unconscious condition. The clubhouse was so crowded that hundreds of people were turned away. Announcement was made that McGovern and Corbett had agreed to meet in a six-round bout at the club in a short time.

Fisheries Dispute Ended.
Washington, Oct. 19.—After a conference between Secretary Root and Sir Mortimer Durand, British ambassador, it was announced that a speedy and satisfactory solution of the Gloucester-Newfoundland fisheries controversy was in sight. The facts obtained show that the Newfoundland inspector of revenue protection services directed that American vessels should not be allowed to fish under American register, on the ground that they had never done so in the past. Prior to this time the American fishermen had bought bait in Newfoundland under fishing license. They are now prevented by law from buying bait and the authorities have been unwilling to permit them to catch their fish without a special fishing license. Secretary Root informed the ambassador that an American register is a ship's highest form of nationality and carries with it not only a license to trade but also a regular fishing license.

His aged mother and his brother, who live in this city, are said to be in ignorance of his fate. The state department at Washington has investigated the case through Consuls Donaldson and Merry, but has not made public the result of its inquiry.

ROOSEVELT ON THE ROAD TO SOUTHERN CITIES

Richmond, Va., Oct. 19.—President Roosevelt's entry into this staid old city was the signal for a wild demonstration from a multitude, and the welcoming enthusiasm only ceased when his train continued on its journey through the south. Mrs. Roosevelt shared in the honors, and Mrs. Montague, the wife of the governor, gave a reception at the executive mansion in her honor. The president made an address at Capitol square before one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Virginia's capital, another at a banquet in Masonic temple, where 400 of the representative people of the Old Dominion were gathered about the boards; again at the Lee monument, where he spoke to a large number of Confederate veterans, and once more at a gathering of negroes. His addresses paid tribute to the Confederate veteran, voiced appreciation of the economic and political progress of the south since the civil war, pointed to his ancestry, in which southern and northern blood are mingled, and to his birth in the east and his life in the west, declaring he believed himself a middling good American; spoke of the preponderance of southern blood in his regiment in Cuba; referred to the aid through advice that this government can give the peoples in the coasts and islands of the Caribbean; reiterated the principle of equal justice to all, and in his talk to negroes congratulated them on their progress as a race.

Referring to industrial problems President Roosevelt said: "The problems that face us abroad are important, but the problems that face us at home are even more important. The extraordinary growth of industrialism during the last half century brings every civilized people face to face with the gravest social and economic questions. This is an age of combination among capitalists. It is idle to try to prevent such combinations. Our efforts should be to see that they work for the good and not for the harm of the body politic. The crime of brutal disregard of the rights of others is as much a crime when it manifests itself in the shape of greed and brutal arrogance on the one side, as when it manifests itself in the shape of envy and lawless violence on the other. Our aim must be to deal justice to each man; no more and no less. This purpose must find its expression and support not merely in our collective action through the Live Intelligence of the Buckeye State.

Mrs. Taggart Will Fight.
Wooster, O., Oct. 19.—That Mrs. Grace Taggart will make a long fight for the custody of her sons, Culver and Tiddles, was made apparent when Captain Taylor, one of the attorneys for Mrs. Taggart, gave notice of appeal from Judge Eason's decision as to the custody of the boys, and a bond of $1,000 was furnished so as to take the matter to the circuit court. The Ohio law which gives a child of 10 or over the right to elect which parent he prefers is made the basis of the appeal. This action was hastened by Captain Taggart sending word that he wanted Culver ready to leave with him for Columbus, although he had not intended taking the boy away until Saturday.

Suicides In Ohio.
Columbus, O., Oct. 19.—Statistics just announced by the secretary of state for the year ending June 30 last show that women are more contented with their lot than are the men. At any rate only 78 women committed suicide in Ohio in the year while 278 men shuffled off by their own hands in the same time. The figures show a decrease in suicidal tendency in the last year, the number of suicides being only about 50 per cent of the number in the year 1904. There were only 2,599 inquests reported for the last year, while for 1904 there were 4,344.

Telephone Deal.
Toledo, O., Oct. 19.—Toledo capitalists have formed a syndicate to buy a controlling interest in the Indianapolis Telephone company and the new Long Distance Telephone company, capitalized at $1,400,000, for $710,000. The amount necessary to finance the deal was over-subscribed here. This will give the Toledo capitalists 51 per cent of the stock. The plan to acquire the plant originated with James S. Bralley, Jr., president of the Toledo Home Telephone company of Toledo, and leading director in the Cuyahoga Telephone company.

PITTSBURG BANK CASHIER ENDS HIS EXISTENCE

Tragedy Coincident With National Bank Failure At Allegheny

Institution Carried State Deposits In The Sum Of Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars--Dead Official A Prominent Man

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—T. Lee Clark, cashier of the Enterprise National bank, Allegheny, committed suicide at his home in Bellevue, following an investigation of the bank's books, which disclosed that the institution was insolvent. Clark took poison and shot himself through the head.

Before the announcement of Clark's death was received at the bank a telegram came from the comptroller of the currency at Washington to close the doors and appoint John B. Cunningham, bank examiner, as receiver. Mr. Clark has lived in Bellevue for 15 years and has always held positions of the highest honor and trust. He represented the Second ward in Bellevue councils. Clark was a member of the United Presbyterian church of Bellevue, being a member of the official board. He has always taken active interest in the work of the church and was its largest contributor.

President Fred Gwinner of the closed bank at once announced that Clark had loaned thousands of dollars to Pennsylvania parties; that he himself has indorsed a note for $50,000 for Clark, concluding with the statement "that if the shortage was only $100,000 he would gladly pay it himself." The bank has state deposits which will amount to about $800,000, of which a large part is in a check account and the rest in state sinking funds. Mr. Gwinner in his statement said: "Nearly $700,000 of the $800,000 state deposits of our bank is out on paper of state politicians. W. H. Andrews has borrowed nearly $400,000; Frank J. Torrance has borrowed considerable. I do not know how much, but the bank is solvent."

When pressed for specific instances of loans made to Andrews and Torrance Mr. Gwinner modified his first statement by saying that the books of the bank do not show that they personally borrowed money from it, but that the money was given to the Pennsylvania Development company. Mr. Andrews is reported to have gone to Philadelphia. Francis J. Torrance is quite ill at his home in Allegheny and could not be seen. His personal representative, W. C. Hagan, said that so far as he knew Mr. Torrance has no paper in the Enterprise National bank.

Bank Examiner John B. Cunningham worked on the books of the bank with the cashier. The examiner was of the opinion that the bank was insolvent and so notified the comptroller at Washington. According to the examiner's report, the resources and liabilities of the Enterprise bank in the last report, made Aug. 25, were $2,973,109.56 each. The Enterprise bank cleared through the Bank of Pittsburg. At that bank it was stated that sufficient deposits were on hand from the Allegheny institution to protect the clearing house, and that all checks had been sent back to the original banks. One of the directors stated that Bank Examiner Cunningham would begin immediately an examination of all books of the bank. This will require about five days, he said, before a statement can be made.

Bank Teller Jumps Overboard.
Honolulu, Oct. 19.—Edward B. Giffard, paying teller of the banking house of Claus Spreckels & Company, who was a passenger on the steamer Sonoma, which arrived here from San Francisco, jumped overboard. The vessel hove to for two hours, but no trace could be found of Giffard. He was unmarried and had been spending his vacation on the Pacific coast. He was well known here and connected with a prominent family.

Indians as Guards.
Washington, Oct. 19.—Commissioner Leupp of the Indian bureau has issued a circular to Indian agents asking them to designate Indians capable of acting as forest reserve guards. He suggests that eight or ten of the most capable Indians be selected from each reservation, and says that an arrangement for their employment when feasible has been made with the United States forester. The special duty involved is to protect the forest reservations against fire.

Mueller Sentenced to Hang.
Chicago, Oct. 19.—The alleged somnambulist murderer, John Mueller, was sentenced to be hanged Dec. 15 for killing his wife and two children. Sentence was passed after Mueller made a dramatic and impassioned appeal to the court for mercy. The prosecution claimed that Mueller was actuated by jealousy, not somnambulism, whether epileptic or otherwise.

Want a Receiver.
St. Louis, Oct. 19.—A petition was filed in the circuit court for the appointment of a receiver with power to wind up the affairs of the North American Investment company, and for an injunction to prevent the removal of any of the assets of the company from the state.

THE "JUST THREE" COMBINE

How nice it is to have a little Ring in Mt. Vernon, composed of Just Three, to run things!
It absolves the dear people from worrying any about public affairs—the Just Three will kindly do that for them.
It saves the dear people the necessity of picking out candidates for office—the Just Three will condescendingly take that unpleasant job off their hands.

When it comes to any good official patronage, the Just Three will be promptly on hand to see that it falls into their lap.

How nice it all is, to be sure!
Jud Vincent, one of the Just Three, revels at present in two very good offices—member of the Mt. Vernon board of public service and member of the Mansfield reformatory board. He has not made a revelation lately as to what other offices he wants, but he may conclude to take one or two more.

Grant Dowds, another one of the Just Three, is not only ambitious to keep in close proximity to the public, but desires to get his relatives in on the ground floor for the good things. Grant has already had a pretty good thing, in the offices of county treasurer and representative, but that only gave him a taste for more, and now he has been slated for the appointment of postmaster of Mt. Vernon. But another member of the family must also be taken care of, and this year Brother Charley was presented with the nomination for clerk of the courts. When the next election comes around doubtless there will be another relative to be taken care of.

Frank Owen, the remaining one of the Just Three combine, has still the unsatisfied ambition of 15 years standing to go to congress and his yearning is just as great as ever.

The Just Three combine has much in common. The more offices they can get for themselves and their relatives and especially favored ones the stronger they become in building up their personal machine for personal profit.

But they may go against a snag. There is an election to be held in a short time.

Maybe the people of Knox county will conclude that it would be a good healthful thing to break up this Mt. Vernon Ring, and give somebody else a chance, by defeating the Ring-made ticket.

CONFIRMED

Greene's Testimony That Bermudez Company Aided Rebels.
Washington, Oct. 19.—Amzi L. Barber, one time president of the National Asphalt company, testified in the case of Venezuela against the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company, that to the best of his knowledge and belief that company did contribute materially to the revolution organized in 1901 by General Manuel A. Matos against the Venezuelan government. Hearings in the case, which have been proceeding in New York, were transferred to Washington to take the testimony of Mr. Barber. The evidence was taken before Albert Harper, an examiner in chancery, designated by the supreme court of the District of Columbia. The testimony practically confirmed that of General Francis V. Greene in the hearing in New York.

Railroad Must Bounce.
Springfield, Ill., Oct. 19.—In response to a request from Auditor of Public Accounts McCullough, Attorney General Stead rendered a written opinion in which the attorney general holds that under the provisions of the charter granted the Illinois Central Railroad company the company must pay 5 per cent of its gross earnings into the state treasury and also a certain amount on all property listed with the state auditor of public accounts for taxation. If the total amount does not equal 7 per cent of the company's gross earnings, the company must pay into the state treasury enough to make the amount 7 per cent.

Philadelphia Republicans.
Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—The first great rally of the regular Republicans took place under the auspices of the Republican state committee. The meeting was held in the Academy of Music and so large was the crowd that gained admittance to the great auditorium that the doors had to be closed before the speakers arrived. Among the 10 speakers were Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker and United States Senator Boies Penrose, both of whom were received with great enthusiasm.

Cold Wave in Montana.

Providence, Oct. 19.—Governor G. H. Utter and all the other present state officers were renominated by acclamation at the Republican state convention here. The platform paid high tribute to President Roosevelt and reaffirmed the Republican principles of protection.

Business Section Burned.
Alturas, Cal., Oct. 19.—The entire business section of Alturas was destroyed by fire, 27 business houses and two residences being consumed. Loss $100,000. Insurance light.

Tipstaves.
Tipstaves, otherwise known as "old Charlies," "Bow street runners" and "Tom tits," were formerly used in England by officers of the law, or police in private clothes, to show their authority. They were generally carried up the sleeve or in a pocket conveniently at hand, and the officer would draw his tipstaff and touch the person to be arrested on the shoulder and say, "I arrest you in the name of the king," just as now a policeman produces his warrant. They were generally made of wood, mounted with brass or silver and tipped with a brass ivory or carved wooden crown, whence the name tipstaff was derived. They varied in size from five to nine inches in length. The men who carried them were also called "Bow street runners." The last survivor died in 1894 at the age of eighty-five.

Virtue is more to man than either water or fire. I have seen men die from treading on water and fire, but I have never seen a man die from treading the course of virtue.—Confucius.

Telephone Meeting Held In City Of Mansfield

And Attended By Several Mt Vernon Men

Talks Given By Mr. Ream And Mr. Sapp

An Important Meeting And Well Attended In The Interest Of The Ohio Independent Telephone Company

(Mansfield Shield) A gathering, highly beneficial to the independent telephone interests in central and north central Ohio, was the meeting in this city Tuesday of the 9th district of the Ohio Independent Telephone association which includes the following 13 counties: Ashland, Crawford, Wayne, Holmes, Morrow, Knox, Richland, Union, Delaware, Licking, Franklin, Fairfield and Hocking.

All the counties of the district were represented in the meeting which was held Tuesday afternoon at the mayor's court room, and most highly encouraging reports were received of the work which the independent telephone companies are doing in the district.

The Shelby Independent Telephone company which has not been identified with the district organization heretofore joined yesterday as did also several others which though heartily in accord with the work and the purpose of the independent telephone association had not heretofore been actively identified with it.

Reports received and tabulated at the Tuesday afternoon meeting showed that in the 9th district of Ohio, 84,000 independent telephones have been installed—an increase of over 4,000 in six months.

The discussion Tuesday afternoon by the telephone managers and officers, of matters pertaining to the extension of independent telephone business was participated in very generally and every telephone man present got benefit from the conference, which continued during the afternoon. Dwight E. Sapp, vice president of the 9th district, presided and one of the speakers was Frank L. Beam, of Mt. Vernon, the president of the Ohio Independent Telephone association.

MANSFIELD HIGH

Will Have A Light Team To Oppose Mt. Vernon Next Saturday

The faculty of the high school has been having considerable trouble with the members of the school on account of their playing truant from school. The football team has been the worst sufferers on this account, three of the best players having been expelled. One young man was expelled from the team some time ago and as yet has not returned to school. Yesterday afternoon two more members of the team were given notice that they would not be allowed to line up with the team, in the games to be played with the teams of outside high schools. The Mansfield high school football team will play the representative team of Mt. Vernon high school in this city city next Saturday and Mansfield will have a light team in the field.—Mansfield Shield.

HANDSOME PARTY

Given By Mrs. Sanderson And Mrs. McIntire On Wednesday

A charming social function of the autumn months was the handsome tea given by Mrs. Herbert E. Sanderson and Mrs. Rollin R. McIntire Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Sanderson, South Gay street. The house was elaborately decorated with autumn flowers and tea tables were exceedingly handsome with flowers, shadded candles and silverware. Over sixty guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of the hostesses.

THE LINGAFELTERS

Used $78,000 Wrongfully According To Expert Accountant

The case of the items against J. F. Lingafelter in the Homestead Building association matter is being heard before Referee in Bankruptcy J. H. Rogers of Columbus, sitting in the office of Geo. B. Webb. The case seems interminable. Kibler & Kibler appear for the claimants, and Smythe & Smythe for Lingafelter.

The expert Mr. Weber, has examined the books of the defunct institution for six years back and alleges that the sums unlawfully diverted by the management aggregate $78,000. These claims are being attacked in detail by Mr. Lingafelter and his attorneys. The case before Referee Rodgers will continue for many days yet to come.—Newark American Tribune.

SPURIOUS TEAM

Is Known And Arrests Likely To Follow

Supt. Shawn Secures Names Of Boys Who Played Football In This City

(Ohio State Journal) According to Superintendent Shawan, the names of the young men who played the Mt. Vernon team Oct. 7, by representing that they were from the South High school, have been found to be the same as the names given in the alleged forged letter written to the manager of the Mt. Vernon team, which appeared in The State Journal yesterday.

It has been found, according to Mr. Shawan, that a young man named Gochenback, formerly of Central High school, was the one who engineered the scheme to play under the guise of the South High school team.

The officials say that they have now learned the identity of every man who went to Mt. Vernon as a member of the spurious team. There were 14 or 15 in all. The only one of the party who was a High school student is said to be Redden. Redden, however, is not a pupil of South High school.

Mr. Shawan said yesterday he had not decided what action he would take.

GRAND SEND OFF

Given Mr. And Mrs. Conley By Members Of Homestead Club

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Conley, who were married at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, departed on the south bound C., A. & C., passenger train Wednesday evening on their wedding trip, their destination being kept a secret. At the C., A. & C. depot the bride and groom were met by the members of the Old Homestead club, of which Mr. Conley is president.

The couple were given a grand send off. The club members were armed with packages of confetti and hand bills and the couple were given a good shower of the confetti while others distributed the bills through the train.

Beware Of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucus surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheyney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and it is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheyney & Co. Testimonials free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

GRAND JURY

Will Have Many Cases To Investigate This Fall

Four Cases Will Be Of Great Importance

The Bricker Murder Case To Be Looked Into

Appraisers Have Been Named By The Probate Court To Appraise The Estate Of The Late Sheriff Shellenbarger

"The grand jury at the coming November term of common pleas court will have an exceedingly busy time," remarked Prosecuting Attorney Stillwell to the Banner on Thursday. In addition to the usual number of investigations brought to the attention to a grand jury there will be the investigation of the killing of Sheriff James C. Shellenbarger, a charge of murder having been placed against Frank Hildreth immediately after the death of the late sheriff.

The members of the grand jury will also be required to make a thorough investigation of the murder of Miss Marinda Bricker and it is to be hoped that some information may be obtained that may lead to the arrest of the person connected with this terrible crime.

Another case to be brought to the attention of the grand jury will be the recent death of George Smale of this city, whose death was due to a bullet wound inflicted by an Italian by the name of "Tony." The Italian made good his escape after the shooting, but nevertheless a complaint has been filed and an effort will be made to locate the missing man.

Still another case to be investigated by the grand jury will be that of the death of a young child at Lock. It will be remembered that the body of the child was found in a cistern and there was considerable talk about the case at the time.

With the numerous other cases that always come up and in addition to the ones mentioned above it will indeed be a very busy session for the members of the grand jury.

SHELLENBARGER ESTATE

John Graham, Patrick Purcell and Morgan Ashburn have been appointed appraisers to appraise the estate of James C. Shellenbarger.

SPITTLE-CLINE

Two Young People Of Mt. Vernon Married Wednesday Evening

At half after seven o'clock Wednesday evening a beautiful home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. Eli Cline, south of the city, when his daughter, Miss Grace, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Thomas Spittle. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends by the Rev. William E. Hull, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The house was beautifully decorated for the event in autumn flowers and autumn leaves. Following the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served. The newly wedded couple will make their home with Mrs. Harriet Spittle, east of the city.

STRUBLE THEATRE

May Again Be Opened For Theatre Purposes

A Columbus Architect Expected In The City This Week To Go Over The Building

It is probable that the Struble theatre may again be opened for theatre purposes. An architect from Columbus is expected in Mt. Vernon sometime this week to go over the building and see what improvements are necessary to make it absolutely safe and to comply with orders of the state building inspector. It is the plan to tear out several small rooms on the south side of the hall on the second floor, which will allow considerable room for hall purposes.

ARCHBISHOP'S SPEECH

Introducing Gov. Herrick Misconstrued And The Archbishop Makes An Explanation

The speech of Archbishop Moeller introducing Governor Herrick at the convention of the German Catholic Verein was talked about a great deal. The explanation of the matter is contained in the following article in the Catholic Columbian, published at Columbus:

"Much capital has been made of the remarks attributed to Archbishop Moeller at the mass meeting on the evening of 'Catholic Day' at Music Hall, which some politicians construed into a boom for Governor Herrick.

"So widespread has been the comment that the Archbishop has deemed it necessary to state exactly the words he used on that occasion, together with their meaning, which was so distorted. The Archbishop in a private letter in regard to the matter said:

"My remarks introducing Mr. Herrick have been misquoted. The substance of my remarks is as follows:

"Ohio is a great state and a fruitful mother of several Presidents. Among those who occupied the Presidential chair are Hayes, Garfield and McKinley. We have still more Presidential timber, and who knows but that the Chief Executive of Ohio, who is about to address you, may succeed Theodore Roosevelt, whom we all love and esteem, and whom we pray God may preserve, grant life and deliver not into the hands of his enemies."

"The letter goes on to say: 'I think well of Governor Herrick, but cannot see how my words can be construed into a "boom" in his favor.'"

It is very plain from the above that the word "whom" refers to President Roosevelt instead of to Gov. Herrick, and the Archbishop gives the proper construction to his remarks, instead of the false construction placed on them by Chairman Dick of the Republican State committee.

THE BERRY FUNERAL

The funeral of Edward Berry was held from his late residence on West Burgess street Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. W. A. Roush of the Vine street Christian church officiating. The remains were taken to Bellville on the afternoon B. & O. train for burial.

POOR PAY

For Ministers Of North Ohio M. E. Conference

According To Report Of Bishop Goodsell

The Amount Paid In The Mt Vernon District

Is Not Large Although The Presiding Elder In This District Receives More Than In Mansfield District

Some of the districts of the North Ohio conference are larger than others and members of the various districts have been working with the end in view that an adjustment be made. This matter was taken up with Bishop Goodsell at the opening of the conference session here and he made a full investigation.

A few of the figures he used in summing up the situation will be of interest to the members of the Mount Vernon district. The Cleveland district has 40 charges and 7,400 members; Mansfield district 26 charges and 8,441 members; Mt. Vernon district, 27 charges and 7,375 members; Sandusky 23 charges and 5,437 members; Wooster 38 charges and 7,357 members. Thus it will be seen that Wooster, Mt. Vernon and Cleveland are about equal while there is a very great difference between Mansfield and Sandusky districts. The following are the salaries of the presiding elders in the various districts: Cleveland $2,147; Mansfield, $1,555; Mt. Vernon, $1,715; Sandusky, $1,600 and Wooster $1,685. The per capita paid in the various districts is as follows: Cleveland 35 cents, Wooster 33 cents, Mt. Vernon 32 cents, Sandusky 30 cents, and Mansfield 18 cents. The following amounts are paid for pastor's support in the various districts exclusive of house rent: Cleveland, $31,137; Mt. Vernon, $18,211; Mansfield, $22,034; Wooster, $23,993; Sandusky, $17,800. The income of the Cleveland districts presiding elder is the largest. The bishop stated that if he were to take from the Cleveland district to ease Mansfield he would detract from the most expensive to aid the poorest paying one. He stated that the true remedy was the development and cultivation of liberality on the part of the Mansfield district. The Mansfield elder is the next poorest paid. The Sandusky elder is the next poorest paid. Summing it all up the bishop suggested that the following would equalize matters some: Cleveland district yield New London to Sandusky district. Wooster district yield Nova to Sandusky district and Mansfield district to yield Savannah to Sandusky district. In closing the bishop stated that he would not make those changes now but would await the development of the Mansfield district. At this juncture Presiding Elder Idleman, of Mansfield district, moved that the figures which had just been read be published so that the members of his district should have a chance to know how they were paying in comparison with the other districts of the conference. Bishop Goodsell declared that the figures belonged to him and he would not give them out for publication in the conference minutes. The Globe reporter took the figures down as they were read by the bishop and we would suggest that Presiding Elder Idleman send a marked copy of this issue to the members of his district.—Shelby Globe.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

FOUR ARE BADLY HURT IN A AUTO ACCIDENT

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—An automobile running at a rapid rate crashed into a party of seven ladies returning home from a theater, probably fatally injuring four. Mrs. Eugene Lappe was dragged 35 feet. Her head is badly cut, her body is bruised all over, and she is injured internally. Mrs. Minnie Castle Davis suffered a fractured skull and is not expected to recover. Miss Lillian Delamater was hurt internally. Miss Gertrude Krissinger's body was bruised all over and lower limbs paralyzed. The ladies had just alighted from a streetcar during a heavy rain, and while picking their way slowly across the tracks the automobile, owned by T. B. Ritter of the Ritter-Conley company and driven by T. B. Murphy at high speed, ran them down. The machine was inside the car tracks and caught the four ladies who had got that far, the others escaping by being in the rear.

The Money Lenders. There are many examples of Lord Palmerston's ready wit in Sir M. E. Grant Duff's book, "Notes From a Diary." In a debate about the Jews an orator bored the house by enumerating many of the things which the English owed to Hebrew initiative. Lord Palmerston in reply gave the discussion a sprightlier turn. "I quite agree with the honorable gentleman," he remarked. "Many of us owe a great deal to the Jews."

As to Ladies and Gentlemen. "It's a fine thing to be a lady or a gentleman," said the bookkeeper. "What's your idea of a gentleman?" inquired the stenographer. "A man that's clean inside and out; who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can lose without squinting and who can win without bragging; who is considerate of women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat and who takes his share of the world and lets other people have theirs."

A perfect lady is a woman who can hear a choice piece of scandal about her dearest enemy and then forget it," answered the bookkeeper. "Inh!" cried the stenographer. "That kind of a woman wouldn't be a lady, she'd be in an asylum for the dumb."—New York Journal.

Ants' Cow Sheds. One of the most interesting studies of insect life is the relationship between ants and plant lice, or aphids. These plant lice supply honey dew from the juices which they take as food from plants. The ants are very fond of this sweet substance and care for the aphids in a manner that seems to us surprisingly intelligent. They sometimes carry them bodily to a better feeding ground and drive away certain of their enemies. It is claimed that they even build sheds of mud in the crotches of shrubs and small trees. On account of this insect relationship one may truthfully call the ants "farmers," the aphids "cows" and those protecting mud cases "cow sheds."—St. Nicholas.

The Greatest Evil. The Persian author Saadi tells a story of three sages—a Greek, an Indian and a Persian—who in the presence of the Persian monarch debated this question, Of all evils incident to humanity which is the greatest? The Greek declared, "Old age oppressed with poverty;" the Indian answered, "Pain with impatience," while the Persian, bowing low, made answer, "The greatest evil, O king, that I can conceive is the couch of death without one good deed of life to light the darkness way."

American Women's Jewels. To the average English woman her jewelry is merely an adjunct, having no particular connection with the rest of her toilet, but added at random. Not so with the transatlantic smart woman. She dresses to her jewels and has her gowns made to match them.—London Motorist and Traveler.

Jack and Jill in Norway. A writer on Norway says, "Our familiar nursery friends Jack and Jill are descendants of Hjuki and Bil, the ebbing and flowing tides, the tumbling crests of which, breaking one over another as the waves wash the shore, are rather aptly described in the nursery rhyme."

The Difference. Mrs. Shopleigh—What! Pay $14.99 for a hat like that? Why, it's outrageous! Salesman—But you forget, madam, it has been especially reduced from $15. Mrs. S.—Oh, in that case I'll take it. You see, I didn't know it had been reduced.—Washington Life.

Do It Well. Doing things as well as they can be done is not only the quickest way to advancement, but it has a very great influence upon one's character and self respect. If for no other motive than to maintain our self respect, we should never allow ourselves to get into a habit of half doing things.—Success.

Had Them Either Way. In his "Recollections of a Virginian" General Dabney H. Maury tells of an old lady in Fredericksburg who was reduced to taking in boarders in order to make both ends meet. On one occasion of peculiar stress the lander was so empty that the good lady took to her bed and summoned her servant, "Nancy," she said, "there's nothing in the house for my boarders to eat except mush. But give them that. If they are Christians they will accept in resignation and thankfulness. And if they are not Christians it is a deal too good for them."

The Perfect Pun. A perfect pun makes good sense both ways; the edges meet with a click like the blades of a sharp pair of shears. Sometimes the very thoughts fit tight together in antagonistic identity, as when the man said of the temperance exhorter that he would be a good fellow if he would only let drink alone, or when Disraeli (if it was he) wrote to the youth who had sent him a first novel: "I thank you very much. I shall lose no time in reading it;" or as when a man, seeing a poor piece of carpentry, said, "That chicken coop looks as if some man had made it himself." Exquisite perverse literalness of thought! And the same absolute punning, the very self destruction of a proposition, was the old death thrust at a poor poet by the friend who said, "His poetry will be read when Shakespeare and Homer are forgotten." It was a fine double edged blade of speech until some crude fellow, Heine, I think, sharpened it to a wire edge by adding, "and not till then," a banality that dulled its perfection forever.—J. A. Macy in Atlantic.

Remarkable Lunar Rainbow. I recall many lunar rainbows during the half century since I was an observant boy and, if memory serves me, one double lunar rainbow. Put the most perfect of these bows that I recall I saw on the edge of Darlington, S. C. I was in a road leading north, with extensive fields east and west; hence my opportunity. The full moon had just risen above the tops of the distant woods, and the bow in the west was perfect. The span of the bow was materially less than the span of a sun rainbow, but its depth, or thickness, was proportionately much greater. The rainbow colors were distinct, but pale, as if the arch were built of pale mother-of-pearl, and they changed and faded less rapidly than the sun rainbows I have seen. When in camp on John's island, South Carolina, I saw a brilliant sun rainbow with one foot of the arch so near we could stand on it or pass behind and in front of it, but we did not "dig for gold."—Macon Cor. Scientific American.

Nelson's Famous Signal. It is a fact that Nelson's famous signal to the fleet at Trafalgar was in its original form, "England 'confides' (not 'expects') that every man will do his duty." This is the story as given by Captain Pasco, Nelson's flag lieutenant on the Victory: "His lordship came to me on the poop, and after ordering certain signals to be made about a quarter to noon he said, 'Mr. Pasco, I wish to say to the fleet, 'England confides' that every man will do his duty.'" And he added, 'You must be quick, for I have one more to make, which is for close action.' I replied, 'If your lordship will permit me to substitute 'expects' for 'confides,' the signal will soon be completed, because the word 'expects' is in the vocabulary, whereas 'confides' must be spelled.' His lordship replied in haste and with seeming satisfaction, 'That will do, Pasco; make it directly.'" And the famous signal was made.—London Chronicle.

There Was a Limit. An Irishman one day went into the shop of a barber to get shaved. After being properly seated and the lather about half applied the barber was called to an adjoining room, where he was detained for some time. The barber had in the shop as a pet a monkey, which was continually imitating its master. As soon as the latter left the room the monkey grabbed the brush and proceeded to finish lathering the Irishman's face. After doing this he took a razor from its case and stropped it and then turned to the Irishman to shave him. "Sit up that!" said Pat. "Ye can tuck the towel in me neck and put the soap on me face, but begorrah, yer father's got to shave me!"

Louis the Great's Size. Louis the Great had even and tolerably regular features without any strongly marked characteristics. By all his contemporaries he is spoken of as a tall man, but he had a way of raising his head, surmounted by the monstrous wig he wore, and of swelling his chest that created the impression of height, for when the sepulchers of the kings were violated by the convention and his body was dragged out of his coffin it was measured and found a trifle over 5 feet 6 inches.

Secretary Shaw's Ruling. Washington, Oct. 19.—Secretary Shaw has issued amended instructions to customs officers regarding the entry of imported leaf tobacco. Under the new ruling importations of leaf tobacco will be denied entry unless the invoices specify in detail the character of such tobacco, whether wrapper or filler, with the percentage of wrapper, if any, its origin and quality. When an invoice fails to state whether the tobacco is filler or wrapper, and the bona fides are beyond question, opportunity will be given to secure a corrected invoice. Where good faith is not shown, summary action will be taken.

Would Pay Duty on Alice's Gifts. Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 19.—A movement has been started here to raise by popular subscription in the south $300,000 or a sum sufficient to pay the duty on the presents bestowed upon Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the president, during her trip through the orient. The plan is intended to show the appreciation of the south for the president's recent efforts in behalf of peace between Russia and Japan, in inaugurating the construction of the isthmian canal and other acts of his administration which have endeared him to the people of all sections without regard to political affiliations.

Prisoners in County Jails. Columbus, O., Oct. 19.—Statistics given out by the secretary of state for the year ending June 30 show that the cost of keeping prisoners in county jails of the state was lowest in Hamilton county, 39 cents per capita per diem. In Franklin county it is 55 cents. There were 17,090 prisoners in all of the jails, of which 9,369 were Ohio born, 14,896 white, and 15,243 were males.

The Mission of the Children.
Only think, if there was never anything anywhere to be seen but grown-up men and women. How we would long for the sight of a little child! Every infant comes into the world with a delegated prophet, the harbinger and herald of good things, whose office is to turn the fathers' hearts to the children and to draw the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. A child softens and purifies the heart, warming it and melting it by its gentle presence; it enriches the soul by new feelings and awakens within it what is favorable to virtue; it is a beam of light, a fountain of love, a teacher whose lessons few can resist. Infants recall to us from much that engenders and engenders selfishness, that freezes the affections, roughens the manners, lowers the heart. They brighten the home, deepen love, invigorate exertion, infuse courage and vivify and agitate the charities of life. It would be a terrible world, I do think, if it were not embellished by little children.—Thomas Binney.
