Letter to Judge C.

Charles Petit McIlvaine

The Charles P. McIlvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

House of Bishops
Oct-21/58

My dear Sir-

In agreement with such other Bishops, connected with our Evangelical Society, as I have spoken with on the subject of this note, I beg to say to you, as Pres. of the Church Mep. Soc. that ~~and~~ I feel very uncomfortable in seeing how our position, as connected with that Soc. & how that of Evangelical Ministers from Church in general, is in danger of being misunderstood & misrepresented by the fact that a Rev. Brother who by his recent publication is so identified

97073 case & B433

with extreme views as to the teaching of the Prayer Book & who is so zealous to propagate the same, in the Secretary & Agents of the Am. <sup>Missionary</sup> Education Soc.; & I desire most kindly & respectfully to call your attention to the importance, in consideration of the great necessity in these days that our Evangelical ranks should be as much as possible undivided that some change should be made

Very respectfully

Your friend

Chas. P. McWhanne

Rev. Judge Congdon -

We heartily concur in the above.
