

Charles Pettit McIlvaine Letters

7-6-1865

Letter to Charles P. McIlvaine

Wittingham

The Charles P. McIlvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/mcilvaine_letters

Recommended Citation

Wittingham, "Letter to Charles P. McIlvaine" (1865). Charles Pettit McIlvaine Letters. 290. https://digital.kenyon.edu/mcilvaine_letters/290

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles Pettit McIlvaine Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

Bart. July 6. 165

My dear Bishop

I thank you for your communication of your letter to Bp Hopkins. With me exception I had felt strongly all the grounds of objection to Bp H's course which you bring forward, but am so earnestly desirous that the sundred elements of our Body should be brought together with the least possible delay, that I was fain to overcome my reluctance to give sanction to a somewhat dangerous precedent, to the extent of authorising Bp H to send his letter in his own name with assurance of my concurrence. I inclose a copy of my note on next leaf.

The point in regard of which

Bp. Whittingham on Letter to Walker Bp.

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

I do ^{not} share in your apprehensions is that of the danger of having a "military" representative sent to General Convention from some Southern Diocese. I am very positively assured by such of the clergy from the South as I have seen, that the opinion of Churchmen is strongly against the desecration of the ministerial office by military service; and that no clergyman who has been guilty of it is likely to recover his standing with ease or speedily.

The utterances of our brethren of Georgia are greatly to be regretted:
but even those had perhaps better be ignored by us, if he be disposed to take an altered tone, rather than drive him, and others in support of him, into an attitude of open opposition.

Very faithfully
your friend & brother
W R Whittingham

Rev Dr Knellwaine

(Copy)
Rev Rev (Doubtless)

I have received your printed circular of June 22d inclosing a draft of a letter to the Bishops in the States lately in rebellion, for my signature.

I cannot sign, as my own, a letter about the contents and phraseology of which I have had no opportunity of previous conference.

But that the brotherly and timely action proposed by you may have, as far as I am concerned, the spirit and substance of entire unanimity, I cordially authorize you to send your proposed letter, as written by you in my behalf with my hearty concurrence in its purport and end

Very faithfully yours
your friend & brother

(Signed) W R Whittingham

Rev Rev John H Hopkins, D.D.

Bishop of Vermont and Lenox Bishop &c &c