AUDITIONS for prospective choir members will be held Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 9 & 10 in the Chapel basement. Sign up for time on the bulletin board in the Chapel basement. Returning members need not re-audition.

METROPOLITAN Opera: Plan now to hear the Friday evening, Sept. 20th performance of Puccini's Turandot in Cleveland. Tickets and transportation will be provided to the first ten people who sign up with Ms. York in the Student Affairs Center and pay $10 to cover costs. Deadline is Wed., Sept. 11 at 4p.m.

THE Ohio Athletic Conference, of which Kenyon is a member, in a special July session voted to remove the word "male" from the General Regulations. A committee which includes representatives of women's sports programs in OAC colleges was formed to study the ramifications of this action. This committee is scheduled to report at the November meeting of the OAC. The new ruling allows women to compete on men's teams immediately until further guidelines are established. Title IX regulations of the federal government exempt the sports of football and wrestling from this change.

AVAILABLE TO FACULTY/STAFF (for personal use) Reserve Seat tickets to home football games. Season book $3 - individual game 50¢. Purchase at Field House. However, you will be receiving your complimentary family pass for all home football and basketball games by Campus Mail within a few days.

THE BABY BOOK: This year the individual pictures of the Freshman Class and Transfer Students will be published in a booklet that can be purchased after Sept. 16 for $1 per copy.
