Letter to Bishop Whittingham

Charles Pettit Mcllvaine

The Charles P. Mcllvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My dear Bishop

I expect to be in Balt.
on the 21st to attend a meeting of the Trustees of the Peabody Fund for education in the South. & it will be convenient for me to receive at that time such papers connected with the Committee on the Course of Studies, as are in your possession & you may think proper to put in my charge as Chairman.

As soon as leisure shall permit, I will call on you.
Sometime in May perhaps we may get a meeting of the Committee.

Yours friend & brother
Chas. P. McIlwaine

Right Rev.
W. R. Whittingham DD
