Letter to Reverend E. Allen

Charles Pettit Mcllvaine

The Charles P. Mcllvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Rev. & dear Sir

I have rec^d to-day your note of yesterday - I expect to be at home all this week except such times as I may have to go to town - You will come & dine with me & let me know what day - The omnibus comes at 10 A.M. & at 2¹/₂ P.M. leaving ^{D. W.} corner of Main & 4th about an hour before - ~~then~~ let me know the day before that I may be sure to be at home -

Just wrote me through the P.O. as generally I do not get much letters till the next day. But send a note to care of J. W. Ellis Esq First National Bank, who if sent before 4 P.M. will bring it out.

Yours very truly

Chas. P. Williams

Enclosure Feb. 8/19

Rev. & dear Mr

I got home on the 6th & found your kind note & its enclosure - I will make the letter as complete as I can & send it you - I found a little note from my old brother Phil Barrow - now in Baltimore enclosing a lot of his poetry - You or some one else told me of a clergyman there who is very poor & aids himself by such offerings - his friends taking them & giving them to him - Was it Barrow?
