BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF FLUORESCENT PAMPHLETS

ARTIST: SUIKANG ZHAO

Language and its syntax are understood only within their own discipline and cultural environment, while religion evolves through historical context and becomes an exclusive belief system formed by language. It is very interesting to see reciprocal action between (1) ambiguous language with inner mathematical structure and (2) how strict religious credo to transcend vulnerable human being. By displacing, paralleling, and overlapping Hindu, Buddhist, Islamic, Judaic, and Christian religious texts with piercing fluorescent light, I see the mathematical visual form and chaotic ambiguity of the texts as a whole, as well as the penetrating detail of a single word taken out of its own context.
