K. MS. D. 670812

Barnham Castle,
Surrey.

Aug. 12. 1867

My very Dear Bishop.

A letter from Larus, just received, tells me that you are actually in England, with stairs. I lose no time in telling you that unless you can come to me this week, I shall not see you till next month. At the beginning of next week I leave Barnham for the Channel Islands, and shall not be able to return till Synodical action begins.

you will find a most hearty welcome here till Saturday next - alas, I cannot say beyond that day.

Yours most affly

Wm. W. W.

P.S. I shall be delighted to see you again
