Letter to Charles McIlvaine

William Carus Rev.

The Charles P. McIlvaine letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My dear Bishop

As we cannot have the pleasure of seeing you & the two ladies on Monday, I hope that you will come forward to stay till Thursday, as an arrangement since I last wrote has been me discouraged until that day

I am my dear Bishop affectionately & respectfully

Franklin Carter.

N.W. 29th 1858.

My dear Bishop.

I have from James
that you may be
daily expected — from home — , & I had a line to greet you, but uncertain whether it will reach you at your new lodging.

In the hope that you
