Rev. & dear Sir

Your request for a letter dimissory has reached me last night. It is enclosed.
We are sorry to hear of your recovering so slowly. I hope Mrs. & the new daughter are doing well. If the young lady shall do well we will take the credit to her back-eye history if the contrary, it may go to the Bay-States.

The college & Sem. are doing well. Mr. Brown the Pres. pro tem is very much liked & probably will be the President-elect. The degree of A. M. will be conferred on Mr Warren.

Yours very affly
Chas. P. McShane
