

6-20-1824

Letter to Philander Chase

G.W. Marriott

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Marriott, G.W., "Letter to Philander Chase" (1824). Philander Chase Letters. 394.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/394

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

I thought it might be beneficial to poor Sturt, who is very zealously affected towards His & its Bishop, to mention the Picture in the body of a letter, which will probably be read on other accounts by more than one person. Leave this scrap. As other applications also are urged with great activity now, I had better ^{thus} tell you, than mention it in my letter, that Mr Goulburn, Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant in Ireland, means to support you there. His brother, who hopes to introduce you to the Secretary on your return, told me.

G.W. Morison

June 1824

Private — and originally intended for my frank of Saturday, but was mislaid then.

Alice Chase Collection

