My very Dear Lord.

1824.

K.Ch. 240621

On my arrival

in town this day at 11
I found your Lordship's kind letter, with all the inclosures sent me at Oxford for Thursday and Friday. The Post man though he had sent me letters yet quite neglected me.

I came off on Saturday morning after a most agreeable visit to your Alma Mater. The reason because of the merry civilities manifested towards myself and a bowe all of the great interest taken in the cause of Ohio, ^{by the University of Oxford} will, I trust, never leave my conscious mind.

Since returning to town I have had much conversation with those best of friends the Marquis respecting my speedy return to Ohio. Mr. Wiggins & Lord Gambia is against it. They say my work will be but half done; & that duty shoud prompt me to ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~work~~ ^{work} ~~men~~ ^{men} the work demands that I persevere in it to the final accomplishment — but I have not time to enter on this question now —

I have only a few minutes to tell you Lordship that I have you and also to beg the favour of sending the enclosed letter* to Mr Adam Hodgson Liverpool or any other person whom you Lordship knows will put it on board the first packet for New York.

I need pass our worthy & commendations in this "Letter" but yet I have a great desire that my dear wife and the good Christians in this may see it as soon as possible. I shall tell my wife that you, My Good Lord are my best friend; & she will know that I am yours most sincerely
