My very dear Lord;

Miss Marfoulane

defines me after reading Lady Proffers letter to transmit it to her ~~mother~~ as soon as may be: but permits that in passing it may be seen by your Lordship as well as by myself; this has ever in much confidence.

Mr. Smith the painter would have me sit again to day for a last touch at the picture. I hope it will do good.

Our conversations continue respecting the necessity of my leaving ~~Engl~~ for your Ohio. We draw nearer and Miss Marfoulane's address is Cippenham near Maidenhead.

nearer to the point of determining to set sail on the 16- of July - -

This will not (as stated in your Ltr in closed paper) bring me in the ordinary my course of God's Providence to New York till the middle of Augt. From that time to the first of Sept I must be occupied in making ready for the departure of my family and in visiting my brothers in N. Hampshire & Vermont (if them I can visit at all)

The month of Sep^r is the only month with a part of Oct^r in which a family like mine can move 600 miles as from New York to Ohio.

 can not go at all. & if I go not this winter One whole year will be lost.

Against this hasty departure there is arrayed all the reasons arising from the necessity of my presence to keep alive the interest in the Ohio Cause.

But can not this be supplied by the goodness and interest of the same in itself; especially when see forth by the powerful influence of its patrons resident in Eng? }

But more of this here after.

Pray be assured of my very permanent love and gratitude
