My dear Lord

The highly satisfactory testimony of Mr Clay to the judicious selection of the site of the Ohio College I have forwarded to Mr Hoare who will send it to Mr Wiggins. Our dear good Bishop Chase has been greatly prosper'd and bless'd in his unwearied and zealous labours to effect the establishment of an Institution that has for its ends and objects the greatest and most important that can engage the powers and faculties of the mind of Man: even the Glory of our great Redeemer and the eternal Salvation of the human Race. and greatly may you rejoice my Dear Lord in having so large a portion in promoting so divine a Cause. and on which I heartily congratulate you: may your pious endeavours be greatly bless'd and amply rewarded.

I remain, my Dear Lord with truth and sincere regard

Your obliged humble friend

GAMBIER.
