 as highly as ever he did of you. I could not get him to talk of the Bishop, tho' I purposely mentioned him. I am anxious that the two enclosures should reach you, and hope I have now directed ~~them~~ ^{this} right. I ought to have sent this to you from Welford, but am assured it will go as soon from hence, & will join the mail to Liverpool at Ninkley. How truly disgusting the attention paid to Lord Byron's remains by the Duke of Bedford, Lord Holland &c. is! I fear for Norris as you do. Sikes made him a controversialist immediately after he had stepped on the very threshold of religion from a region as wide as the Pole from it. It is easy to overlook ourselves, I fear, in a constant war with others, & to diminish our own faults while we magnify theirs.

There is a very curious Paragraph about the Rugby Bible Society in John Bull of this week. Pray get a sight of it - Yours ever very affly
