

8-6-1829

Prospectus for Students

Philander Chase

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Chase, Philander, "Prospectus for Students" (1829). Philander Chase Letters. 799.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/799

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

K. C. H. 290806

KENYON COLLEGE.

THE Friends and Benefactors of this Institution will be gratified to learn, that by the middle of September next, one hundred and ten feet of the College Stone building, four stories high, will be ready for the reception of Students to the amount of fifty or sixty in addition to their present number, ninety.

This notice is given especially for the convenience of those who have been waiting for admission to the privileges of this Seminary.

Necessity has compelled the constituted authorities of the Institution to require that the expenses of Students be paid one year in advance. They are as follows:

For forty weeks term including board, tuition, fuel, light, washing and room rent, in the Grammar School,	- - - - -	60, dollars.
do College,	- - - - -	70,
Students when admitted candidates for the Ministry, are charged only	- - - - -	50.

Incidental expenses., if any, must be paid at the end of every term.

If Students remain during vacation their expenses will be as in term, and no more.

It is obvious that the prosperity of the Institution depends on a strict adherence to the foregoing requisition. The charges being so low, she must avail herself of their full benefit, and without defalcation: it being understood that if any Student be dismissed for misconduct, or withdrawn by reason of sickness, the balance due him will be refunded.

5. nu

The Winter session will commence on the 20th of October.

P. CHASE, President.

Gambier, August 6th, 1829.