Score Board

NEW YORKER MUSIC CRITIC ANDREW PORTER will moderate a panel discussion/demonstration on Fri., 10/9 at 8:00pm in Rosce which will compare the resources of an 1856 Erard concert grand piano with those of a 15-year-old Steinway grand. Paul Posnak, Raymond Dudley, and Charles Fisk will use both pianos in demonstrations of the music of Chopin, Schumann, and Liszt, and perhaps other composers known to have used or been familiar with the resources of Erard pianos. Members of the audience will have the opportunity to participate and to converse with the panelists. No admission charge.

GEORGE GUND CONCERTS feature solo artists and ensembles of international renown and are presented to the public without charge. The first for this year is Sat., 10/10 at 8:00pm in Rosce. Raymond Dudley will perform works of Schumann, Liszt, and Chopin on an 1856 Erard grand piano. One of Mr. Dudley's recordings was chosen by Saturday Review as "Record of the Year".

JUDITH PLASKOW, editor of the book Womenspirit Rising, will be giving a lecture on Mon., 10/12 at 8:00pm in the Bio Aud entitled "Woman as Body: The History of an Idea".
