K. Ch. 32. 1018

Thurs. eve.

My dear wife,

I am now in the vestry room of St John's Church, its clock is just striking eleven. After finishing my letter to you last night, I went with my father & Mrs Berrian & her daughter to St Paul's Ch. where Dr De Lancey delivered an excellent <sup>sermon</sup> ~~address~~ in behalf of the Gen. Sum. S. Union. Mr Ballard read prayers - assisted by Mr Haight. I then went to the Post office & finding it closed could not pay the postage, as you will <sup>have</sup> perceived it was unpaid. On returning to my lodgings I found that Mr Morgan had also taken a room there, & he bores me till nearly eleven o'clock.

This morning I went with my father to see a Mr Rider formerly of R. Villa, who has been sick for several weeks, but is recovering.
At 10 the convention assembled in St John's Ch. Morning prayers were read by Dr

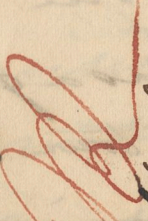

De Lancey. The Ohio business was referred to a joint committee of the ~~two~~ both Houses, & consists of Bishops White, Bowen, & Brownell, Rev. Drs De Lancey, Lyell, & Crocker, Mr Beach of Cheshire Conn. Wm A. Duer, Pres of Columbia Col. & Mr Donaldson a lawyer of Baltimore.

The ~~new~~ revised canons were also referred to a committee. Mr Doane it is said will not be consecrated at present, his wife being unwilling that he should leave Boston, & as she is sick, he does not wish to trouble her with the matter till she recovers.

I dined at my boarding house, but shall be hereafter at Dr Berrian's with my father.
This is in compliance with the request of Mrs Berrian. We shall have a very pleasant chamber together overlooking the Ch. yard. Should you ~~take~~ write to me, as I write you to, direct to the care of Rev Dr Berrian.

When the Bishops will be consecrated it is impossible to say. I fear not till some time next week. This evening I have <sup>been</sup> attending a meeting of the Gen. Miss. Soc. Bro. White is to preach a sermon before the Soc. & Bro. Meade before the Directors some time next week. Bro.

Meade says that my friend Dresser is about to be married to a ba. lady. ~~My friend~~ The Bro. is going to send two of his sons to Kenyon Col. this fall.
Mr. Thacker is a member of the Convention.
My friend Peet is here, as well as a great many other old friends. Mrs. West is in town & Mrs.
Crane I saw them both this morning. Bro. Griswold has been sick today from eating too freely of grapes. but not seriously. I looked for 203 Pearl St. but saw no Mr. Adams about the premises. Mr. Catter has not <sup>seen</sup> Elizabeth & did not know that she was in the city till I told him. I do not know how I shall find her out.
The Committee on the Ohio business are <sup>now</sup> in session immediately under me. I hope the Consecrations will take place on Sunday, but all is uncertain.
I shall have a great deal to tell you when I see you, who I hope will be in a few days. You must take the best care of your self & be happy & quiet. The Lord continue to bless & keep you Always your affectionate husband.

Mrs Samuel Fuller Junr.
Litchfield,
Conn.
