MEN'S & WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS from this past fall: On Wed., 2/3, we will be having our team banquet at Coach Huston's house from approximately 6-9pm. If you can come, please see Andrew Huggins, PBX 2426, Watson 2.

DON'T FORGET TO SIGN UP for the squash, racquetball, and handball tournaments down at the Ernst Center bulletin board.

IM BOWLING IS BACK! Since it was so much fun last year, we're doing it again at Deerfield Lanes at 6:30pm on Fridays, starting 2/5. Cost will be 90¢ per game. Put your team's list (5 players) in the boxes in Peirce or the Fieldhouse or leave at Bexley 101. Questions: Call Kathy, PBX 2470.

A BIG THANK YOU to all the fans who supported the Ladies in their game against Denison. We fell a bit short, but that won't stop us! Wait until the next game . . .

LOST: My favorite pair of gloves - deerskin with wool liners. If you've seen them, please call Bonnie, PBX 2481. On Wed., 1/27, I lost 1 Ragg wool mitten somewhere between Timberlake and Gund. Please call Debbie, PBX 2231, if found. Someone accidentally picked up my light blue PoliSci 30 notebook at lunch on Wed. by the coathooks outside Gund Dining Hall. My name's not in it, but you know it's not yours. Please return to coat area in Gund or Caples 108. Thanks! My copy of Sanity by J.S. Bell. If found, please call Bud, PBX 2438. Brown hand-knit mittens with stripe at WKCO meeting in Philo. Please return - my mother made them for me. Call 2427. Black handled Buck knife; 2 blades - 1 with broken tip. Call Steve Benoit, PBX 2252. Reward! Large sliver ring with red onyx stone and gold inlays in shape of a dragon. It's too large for most people and has tremendous sentimental value to me. If found, please call Taylor, PBX 2254.
