

9-11-1833

Letter to Philander Chase

Lord Kenyon

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Lord Kenyon, "Letter to Philander Chase" (1833). Philander Chase Letters. 972. https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/972

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the College Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

K. Ch. 330911

Your most kind letter of 16 July 1833

Ms. A. 9. 2. 11. 11
1833
Sept. 11
Your most kind letter of 16 July 1833 I received safe was indeed most welcome in bringing a comfortable account of yourself & your dear family. I am here with my pecious Marianne on a visit to my dear Aunt new reg. in as perfect possession of her faculties as she ever was. What is more rare at such advanced age, is a perfect fullness of affection and attachment to high principles and warmth of affection.
It is very blessed to me who look on her as a second mother to see such comfort attend her thro' so long a life; it is a true comfort to my precious remaining phase to feel that we can contribute to solve the latter days of such a kind a relation & she beautifully acknowledges us to be her greatest earthly comforts. I was sure you wd be anxious to hear any thing as to the welfare or danger of our Zion. Alas she is now permitted to be expended & sad & dangerous trials. It not abiding firm to the Protestant cause in 1829 She has ever seemed to me to have cast off her first love - and the safety of my old and revered friend Lord Eldon appears as to this generation at least too likely to be realized that the sun of England's glory has set for ever. Into pol. politics I will not enter for one moment but when I examine but see that the high principle w^h used to seem to be a knowledge of the ruling one for the conduct of publick men, that the true Protestant faith though it be upheld by its diffusion is compared as the highest duty of the State, & as trading to secure the State & the Whore of the Sovereign by drawing down God's mercies of shipping on a war then guided by such. principally for I can see now nothing but a land of harquail willingness not to destroy that Church upon the fury of the & of the the covetousness of the windy-minded call for its destruction under the threat of a billion if it be not conceded - who that

My dear friend
I am not at all
satisfied with the result of the trial
I am not at all
satisfied with the result of
the trial
I am not at all
satisfied with the result of
the trial

has known such days as I remember in the days I grasp the good (as he would when virtuous with I was born is now frequently called) can do otherwise than fear that the light of truth is likely to be much obscured if its candlestick be removed into a corner till the lamp be duly luminous & our death be nearly sick by the loss of the healthy fire of the Gospel & again covet & earnestly seek in every prayer for the restoration of that highest of Natural things. I am not surprised enough to hope that such a situation will come in my days, but I fervently & earnestly pray God it may during the lives of my beloved ones.

My precious Lord has made a match much to my heart's content & entirely to his own to the youngest daughter of Lord Walsingham the late Lord was for many years Chairman of the Committee of the H. of Lords, & his father was highly respected by my Lord Patrick

My dear friend & sister I have no doubt but that you will be very much interested in the above

Emeline Chase
Collection

Kearney
College
Library

D Kearney
11 Sep 1833

the only security for any blessings. My good heart desires in most kind regards to thank you for kind remembrance of her; but she thinks you & oblige you as far as it is in her power to do so. My own Marianne joins me in feeling of true love & affection to you. Let

Dr. Wm. Brewster

Brookston, Maine

Amos A. R.

Michegan
Post Office, Maine

*Entered for office
Sept 2nd
1833
Wm. Chase*

I can only thank you for such a valuable gift in the first postage for the whole post

5 by the professor of the Law as Clerk Justice of the Common Pleas. They have always been united in a tight knit family & my dear beloved Georgia & all her sister have been brought up in sound christian principles.

the dear of apr. 3 so not know what to do with them now a bit to give them cheaply to you. Even if you want them to give them to you. Even if you want them to give them to you. Even if you want them to give them to you. Even if you want them to give them to you.