 I was just washed my head and found that there is no thought and pain no so much in the head of any friend as the thought of it your my dear beloved friend of the people in the love a report you life. My precious Marianne keeps with me still; it is well; I hope is happy.
 My dear Lloyd has a new dear wife a good girl; he is as happy as I am with a new affections, young son to be and my dear Edward too, all now serious in the work of God. I returned from my business this day week I returned from my business at the office of the War Office who are now 5 months in the office. The whole of the world is the most dispiriting of the world; it is now about 40 years of age. Her husband is in the the same state as at the present time as the first - Yours dear & faithful and Edward are additions to the party drawing room

I wish we could see you again in England attend as England is - By God's mercy I hope our eyes are somewhat opened to the hazard of Infidelity being introduced by the extension of power ~~points to me~~ Run by with ~~the~~ any other available gratification I trust however by divine blessing that there is mixed up in our population enough of the principles to leaven the whole mass by His grace to guide the people of power to direct it to the main tenance of His holy truths. On that is my sole reliance, for all power of good are good, except by the overruling arm to force. Our anxious our gracious Sovereign sees what is his true course to pursue, & that he will abide by it correcting at the same time all real grievances & abuses. The widows & orphans daughters of our sainted friend of Marston are at Pisa in Italy, for Bepi's health which we trust is greatly improved by it.

Good Mr. Manwitt, Dear Schie on the what seem much to have enjoyed their excursion. Their good son Fittyhubert is with them, & he 2 little boys! The good Bishop of London has got an appointment for one son for India, and he is going on very well qualifying himself. I had the malar

Dear G. Manwitt, I have for George at I had hoped to give to himself. It ought to be with Sorgoote younger brothers. The

Dear good Bp of Sarum

I hope Kuper will but I rather see our dear friend him as he is nearly blind as to reading writing or writing himself. And Baxter is not true to you as he is to every thing that is good & pious. I see a good deal of him also in London, & he is a great favourite with my friends. Marianne, he is so kind & amiable. & I think together our brother of Canterbury and Archbp of Armagh in Ireland have gained all hearts. No one has shone so much under difficulties as an admirable testimony of a more pious humble minded man I believe any lived.

 It comforts me to hope you have by God's mercy & your exemplary trust in Him thrown your mind & eyes & difficulties May you be spared yet to the comfort
