

6-11-1835

Letter to Philander Chase

Lord Kenyon

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Lord Kenyon, "Letter to Philander Chase" (1835). Philander Chase Letters. 992. https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/992

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the College Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

KCL 350A.11
Putnam Sq.
June 11
1835-

My Dear Bishop
I shall be anxious to hear from you again after your arrival with your dear family in Illinois. That God may graciously bless you with renewed health and strength. I fervently pray; and shall thus be much assured that your devotion to this service is obeying his call to the Illinois country well more indeed a blessing to you and Diocese. I have a few times seen you successful who spoke of your always with high respect. I particularly of what you had procured for Ohio and Kenyon College. He has raised up facilities here to carry into fuller effect the theological beneficence of the college there. I trust the happy & piously founded by you will be productive to the end of time of spiritual good to the people of the Ohio and the Apostolic Beloved me my dear Bishop your affectionate son

John W. Putnam

Protestant Church there to which your soul is so truly wedded. If our former persecuted Church I have by ^{possible} sing, good hopes, & I think improving over the! the enemies are my ^{stiff}.
It is not in its own strength that that I rely, but I think I can see plainly that all those on whom our eyes are naturally fixed as being its constitutional friends & guards, & on whom like my ^{stiff} stand very anxious faithfully to perform their duty by it in this its bitter crisis.
The Archbishop of Canterbury is above all praise; his hopes & aspirations are so completely fixed when they ought to be, & his devotion to his duty is under all risks so steady that it is a true case of ^{stiff} to reflect that we have such a ^{stiff} man at its head. Your old friend the Bishop of Salisbury, Bath & Wells sick & feeble, yet continues still in good health and zeal in the discharge of all their duties, Good I hope you do not alter much in the state of I hope will be spent some time to continue to help to promote the Protestant cause in Ireland across the wide Atlantic. This is my precious Edwards 25th anniversary of his birth day to me & my precious Marianna he is by God's mercy a true blessing, I wish & of a most affectionate heart, your beloved son & son of Liverpool is his absence of flying by my apor-

tional hands
on my Lloyd's

Marianna & on my own life with you has been consigned I will not doubt. Dear Mr G Marriott is returning from abroad with her dear Betsy Fitzgibbon & 2 little ones.
The loss of her dear Felicia, who went with her as a companion to help her to nurse poor Betsy has been a trying sorrow indeed: but her heart is

L. Kenyon

Kenyon
College
Library

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Chase
Leonard St. Eng.
New York

This I took from the writing in from Lord Kenyon as the Bishop's card was here I thought it best to include the letter to you L. K.
Oct 27

So truly affectionately support her. Making my dear Bishop that there is no doubt the value of your kind prayer & affection 3 my good to trust still herself in 3 kindness of heart values them as in 3 with every kind wish to yourself & family then fixed upon, alas true joys are to be found in the hope of meeting them again in your husband & dear Selina, & in a measure at all times that mercy is the darling attribute of Him in whom