My dear Bishop

I return you thanks for very interesting and amiable letter and pray for Mrs. Thompson Lady Mary and if it be the Lord's pleasure, be I shall a large time be in her company at this sacred cause. I have not the honor to know her personally but I think I can not therefore I think I will write to her to thank you for your interesting letter to me and cause. And truly do I sympathize with you in every respect and gratitude towards her. I hope you keep well in health and that you will be preserved so.

I greatly fear that the dark distress with which the landed interest visited at occasional very real distress to me will prevent me receiving such a degree of support as I would otherwise have been able to procure from sound principles.
Nevertheless might be hoped for.
Still I trust you will have good cause to rejoice in your 2<sup>d</sup> appeal to English Protestants. Very glad shall I be to receive you here I will only uphold what I shall see desirable to you & more so far from London. They had regard to you with their help and better men My dear Bishop your own

a friend of mine
