- THE WOOL WAS PULLED OVER OUR EYES! Dramatists Play Service cannot make up its mind. The prof. production of Hooters in NYC will not conflict with the Kenyon production, so Hooters will take place as the first senior thesis production of the year. We have secured the rights (supposedly). This is a fun play (it must be - to be back on the Great White Way); read it. It's back on reserve in the Library. Tryouts Mon., 10/11 at 7:30pm. Casting for 1 male and 2 females.
- AUDITIONS FOR PRINCESS IDA will be held in the Rosse classroom Wed., 10/13 from 4-6pm and Thurs., 10/14 from 4-6pm and 7-9pm. Vocal scores are on reserve in the Music Library. Questions: Call Susan, PBX 2230.
- OPERA ANYONE? Mandatory meeting of all technical types interested in production, direction, costuming, props, and set design for Gilbert and Sullivan's Princess Ida on Mon., 10/11, 4pm in Prof. Andrews' office. Regrets or questions, please call Susan, PBX 2230.
- WANTED: 50 people to learn one phrase of movement (in 5 minutes) to then be performed at the 11/12-13 Dance Concert. You must be able to rehearse on 11/11. See Maggie Patton at the Dance Studio.
- 100 DANCERS ATTENTION: Would Number 1 through 30 please make appointments with M. Patton before Thurs., 10/14 to learn your phrase. Office is in the Dance Studio. Thanks.
- FACULTY MEMBERS: On 10/12, the Faculty Affairs Committee plans to discuss the issue of possible future College help to faculty members in facilitating/financing housing. If you have opinions on this issue, or ideas of options you would like considered, please convey them to me in writing by 10/11 at the latest. It would be helpful to have your comments by 10/7, the date on which I will speak with Sam Lord, VP for Finance, about this issue. Thank you. —Linda Metzler, Asc 101B
