

Philander Chase Letters

Spring 5-27-1836

Letter to Intrepid Morse

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Chase, Philander, "Letter to Intrepid Morse" (1836). Philander Chase Letters. 1069.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/1069

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

W York 27 May 1836

830
1924

Very dear Nephew.

With a grateful heart I arrived in this city yesterday about four o'clock, after a long passage of 37 days from Portsmouth England. My health during the voyage was but indifferent, nevertheless, as to remit public duties day except on Whit Sunday. I hope soon to renew.

On my arrival I found my dear family in Gilead ^{Miss} looking for my return. Dear, sweet beings! - May the kind she be that rested to me on your behalf in land be a solace indeed to you.

I have "made out" better ^{trust only in} to England than under the ^{so live as} which attended me I had ^{full of faith} headed but My object is now to go to Illinois ^{in to the} way of Gilead as soon as possible ^{Chase}

To set in order the things that are wanting.

The purchase of some lands on which to place the Epis. School will be the first thing - the next to visit the vacant and waste places - and the third "to get my own living in that state of life which I am called." - and What will you say? - You know a state of utter want of all means but that which I am "to the honor of my Mother's Birth"

I have to go to work on a farm or a store. -

one of these things must be provided."

Forgive this hasty letter. - truly in haste having every to do in almost no time. - is not from on board and many are expecting to see me before I go to Vermont & thence to the west. - The far west

If you ask what are the avails of my going to buy? I ans^r - "I don't know" -

In money I have ~~in~~ now about 1800£ with many books &c. - Mrs Chase has also many presents of considerable am^t.
raised unknown to me & presented at parting.

Now I want to say a few words to my dear Grand Daughter Mary; They are the words of prayer for heavenly blessings on her precious head. O may she be that her Father shewed himself to be in his last moments a true Christian, not in name but indeed and in truth. May she trust only in a Saviour's blood, ^{for} salvation; and so live as he lived - and so die as he died full of faith and good works; not in youth as he did but in maturity of age as she is gathered in to the Heavenly Garden. Ever faithfully & affectionately yours
R Chase

Emeline Chase Collection

Kenyon
College
Library

The Rev. J. Moore
New-York
28
Ohio

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]