SECOND SEMESTER REGISTRATION IS MONDAY, 1/17 in L Dempsey from 9am-Noon and from 1-4pm. The late registration fine of $10 will be levied for late registrants unless excused by Dean Edwards or Dean Townsend. Changes in course enrollment for the 2nd semester may be made in the Registrar's Office during the first 2 weeks of the semester.

THE LAST DAY OF CLASSES is Thurs., 12/16 - the Friday class schedule will be observed that day except for Thursday evening seminars, which will take place as usual. So be sure to attend Friday classes during the day on 12/16.

SENIOR HISTORY MAJORS: Please report to the History Dept. Sec'y which set of books you will read for the Senior Exercise. Let her know before Christmas if you can; you must in any case make your decision by 1/21/83.

ENGLISH 60/HISTORY 60: Students signed up for Eng/History 60 who wish to keep their places in the course must attend the first day of class. Your place will not be held if you are not present on the 1st day of class.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION WILL BE GIVEN to students who have pressing academic needs to return to campus early. These students may occupy a room on or after Wed., 1/21, beginning at 8am, providing that no later than Wed., 12/15 we receive: 1) a written statement from one instructor that supports the academic needs and 2) a completed Vacation Housing Form. Both forms are available in the Office for Student Residences, SAC.

A SPECIAL WINTER EDITION OF NEWSCOPE will be sent to students' home addresses on 1/5/83. Please forward information to be included to Dean Edwards' office no later than 12/14.

THE BALDRIDGE READING PROGRAM: There are still places available for the Program which begins 1/31. To register, pick up a card at Dean Townsend's office. Questions: Call PBX 2145. Today is the deadline for financial aid requests for the Program. They are due by 4pm in Mr. Tutchings' office, Ransom.

FOR STUDENTS GOING OFF-CAMPUS THE SECOND SEMESTER: If any of you is interested in applying for an Upperclass Counselor position, please stop by Dean Townsend's office, SAC, to pick up an application and job description before leaving for vacation. Questions: Call PBX 2145.

THOSE INTERESTED IN GOING ABROAD! The CIEE 1983 Student Travel Catalog has arrived! Pick up your copy in the OCS Office.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY: Summer study in Poland. The Kosciuszko Foundation is sponsoring nine summer sessions in Poland, at 3 sites, with hundreds of participants expected in 1983. Students and adults may participate in these special programs for foreigners conducted at Poland's leading universities and cultural centers. Minimum requirement is high school graduation. All programs, which are 3-6 weeks long, include tours in Poland as well as classroom and extra-curricular activities. For most programs, no previous knowledge of the Polish language is required, and college credit may be possible. Complete costs, inclusive of tuition, full room and board, travel in Poland and roundtrip trans-atlantic airfare, are approximately $1,500. At the Jagiellonian Univ. - Cracow, The Catholic Univ. of Lublin, the Adam Mickiewicz Univ. - Pozan: Write to Summer Sessions, the Kosciuszko Foundation, 15 E. 65th St., NY, NY 10021. Application deadline is 2/15.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS: Kosciuszko Foundation Scholarship Programs. The Kosciuszko Foundation has available a number of awards for Americans of Polish descent for graduate studies at American colleges and universities in whatever field they choose. Scholarships are also available for graduate study in any area of Polish Studies (Lit., History, Art Hist., Language) for Polish-Americans and Americans of non-Polish descent. Applications for college aid for study below the graduate level are discouraged. Anyone wishing to apply should first send a letter of inquiry to the Grant Officer at the Foundation's address and request an application and the scholarship guidelines. The deadline for the 1983-4 academic year is 1/15/83. The Foundation offers a Year Abroad Program for those wishing to spend a year at a Polish university. Research and post-doctoral study grants in Poland for American scholars are also available. The deadline for research and study in Poland applications is 1/15. For further information, write to: The Kosciuszko Foundation, 15 E. 65th St., NY, NY 10021.

THE JAMES E. MICHAEL PLAYWRITING AWARD will be given on Honors Day, '83, to the Kenyon student who submits the best original script to a panel of student and faculty judges. More information available in the Student Handbook and from the Dept. of Drama. Deadline is 3/23 to the Drama Office.

BE SURE TO GET A "CHANCE" TO HIT A PKIKAP in the face with a pie. Tickets on sale until Wed., 12/15 night at Gund or Peirce or from any member of the fraternity. Money benefits Turn-the-Tide charity in Mt. Vernon. The drawing is 12/16, Thurs in L Dempsey at 7:30pm.

THE FILM BLOW UP is open to the College and community. Michelangelo Antonioni's Blow Up is one of this great filmmaker's most important statements. Complex and enigmatic, it raises searching questions concerning appearance and reality, technology and truth. Tues., 12/14 at 8:00pm in Bio Aud.

THERE WILL BE AN ALL-CAMPUS and Community Christmas Carolling night on Fri., 12/17 at 7:00pm under the big tree on the Alumni House lawn. Bring candles. Refreshments served in Alumni House afterward; also there will be entertainment by the Owl Creek Singers.
