Letter to Philander Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My dear Lord,

Your Lordship is incorrigible - but I really can contribute only a very small sum to the plan which Birkbeck Chambers has in view - For I have a scheme of my own, for building new Churches in the Metropolis, which will require all the money
I can spare.

May I repeat, Yrs

London to convey the accompanying ^{Bill} ~~Letter~~ for £10, and may best wishes to Bishop Cham.

The Archbishop will probably write to you London on this subject.

Believe,

My dear Lord

Your Lordship's

very faithful Servant

C. J. London

The Lord Kensington

My dear Bishop

I rejoice to see the enclosed from your mind and aff. the

Kenyon

At Rod W. Chan
