Letter to Philander Chase

Baruch Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Dear Mother, I send enclosed two subscriptions - papers - containing 19 names - all good - I am sorry I could obtain no more - one paper after it had been handed to me was burned by my carelessness - but all the names may be read - except one or two - the one signed by A. Ranaden or Runaden - the uncertainty Mr. Whipple will explain when the books come

All your friends and relations in this quarter are well and hope you will succeed in your benevolent enterprise for the good of Mankind We all send our Love to you and to each of your family Your Brother Beniah May
