Letter to W. M. Douglas

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Rev and D^r Sir

you will see by the papers that I have assigned to you the important duty of making the first presentation of a clergy man in Jubilee Chapel.

This if duly performed will be recorded in History and I trust excite in all to love good works.

The ordination of S^r Portgate taking place early on the 4th Sunday in advent. You and Mr Jones will please to come the night before. We will all try to make you both as happy as we can.

In haste I am

Your faithful T. P. West

Whelan Chase
