My dear Laura

Your Cousin Mary A. Chase of Sturbridge writes me that she fears from your silence you have forgotten her.
 I have repented that I will make her pious known to you - that if guilty you may mend your ways in regard to that dear Relative of yours.

So this ~~other~~ promise having been thus fulfilled I have a little more sleep time to tell you that through divine mercy I am much better in health than I was. - So much have I recovered that I think of getting off tomorrow with your Uncle Dudley on another tour to the South west. - He shall be absent two or three sundays, and then return to see to the many duties at home

My time is so limited that I have room only to beg to be remembered to all who think of your aged Grandfather
