Letter to Philander Chase

Lord Kenyon

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

My dear Bishop

I cannot so possibly picture to you your and you have you will be sure My heart is for you success there. My offering to you this cause for and how what I have offered to Illinois speak more plainly than any they I can write. I certainly agree with your judgment, considering I find the biggest in that you had far better or very account have nothing to do with any custo-mous as to any their health coming from New York. If necessary you friends will take notice of it duly.

As to Lord I am sure he intends to draw very soon; he seems always first a land to go into a ground wherever he goes. I have a Nephew at All Souls Caped if he is in Oxford now who tho' the east valiant and I am sure will do some good for my sake as well as for your cause sake Robt Mason in his name. I hope of Mr. G. & Dr. Pale if they were to stand to some purpose I have no doubt your of April letter to Mr. Maudslott to do that. In My dear Bishop you must afford me piece of money

Mr. Tyndal's letter drawn for at last, the copy is but at 205 sent, on the Tisbury side of the He is a valued friend of the excellent Dr. Bealy. My kind regard to your kind bird & hostess.

I am all well thank God. If you & I were introduced at the Bishop's I hope that your visit would
