Philander Chase Letters

11-13-1843

Letter to Laura Chase

Philander Chase

The Philander Chase letters were written in the 18th and 19th century and therefore may contain language that we understand today as harmful or offensive. You may encounter paternalist descriptions of Native Americans, racial slurs, or sexism. For more information, see our policy page.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Jubilee Monday night 10..o..

My Dear Laura.

Since writing the inclosed Dudley and his wife and little boy have indeed arrived here on the Hill. Sarah suffered much from a cold while on the Ohio River and Dudley had a week sickness in St. Louis. The little boy whom they mean to call Alexander Wells stood stood it bravely. He is indeed a fine looking child, and may one day be a Bishop — They came about noon and this af=ternoon, quite a party were gathered to =come them. — very

Laura! & his wife Sarah and his son Mahck ♯ 8.½
Henry and his wife Susan & their son Dudley 1..2 —
Mr Kennet & his Janette & his son Henry 8. weeks Dudley & his wife Sarah & his son Alexr. Wells 7. weeks Philander & his wife Anna — no child
Bishop Chase & his wife Sophia   Mrs Ingraham =Laura. Duncan Ingraham 4 years old Betsey & Adelaide, Amy, Margaret, and little Hannah 5 years old an orphan child 12 years

Scholars.   All these & the above
Miss Hall   besides men servants Miss Richards   and callers in — Miss Worthington Surely you will say we had a Miss Sophia Chase numerous & merry company
    " Ruth Chase —

Robinson ... Ia
Nov 14

Free P. Chase

Miss Laura Chase
West — Randolph
Vermont.